

Deacon's Beacons

May 12, 2021

Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain. 1 Corinthians 15:58

Sometimes it feels like we are pounding our heads against a brick wall. It seems like no one is listening to us. There is a sense that the Church is out of step – that it is no longer relevant. That is a shame. The Church has been the beacon of compassion throughout the ages. Now, that is not say that the Church has always been perfect. We have made mistake and we need to own up to them. What is important is not how our “behavior” reflects on the Church but on how it reflects on God. Anything we do should be done for the glory of God and no other reason (except maybe the betterment of our neighbor). Our work is not in vain if that is our focus and our constant objective.

Resurrexit sicut dixit!

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
