

Deacon's Beacons

For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!" Romans 8:15

The term "Abba" is worth a discussion. It is far more intimate than "Father" as is referenced here. It is more endearing. It is closer to "Daddy" in English. The relationship that we have with the Living God is not to be something that is solemn and distant. We are to be in relationship with God. That means we need to be intimately connected to Him. Without that connection, we are performing rites but not exercising relationship.
