“Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.” Matthew 6:19–21

Things of this world will pass away. That is an inevitable reality. So why spend your time pursuing things that will not last? Spend your time cultivating the eternal dwelling not made with hands, as St. Paul calls the soul in the Second Letter to the Corinthians. That is what lasts. Your soul, your very relationship with the Living God should be what are most important to you. Otherwise you are simply chasing shadows.
