Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called and about which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. 1 Timothy 6:12

Eternal life is our hope and what impels us to live in the manner that we do. It is not so that we can earn eternal life. But it is so that we do not lose it. We are saved by the grace of God but we can damage that grace to the point where we lose our souls. If we act in ways contrary to our confession of faith, does that still mean we hold to that faith? We understand that we are fallen but we also understand that, by cooperating with the grace of God, we can rise above our fallen state.
