Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God. Hebrews 13:16

This is so appropriate given that this is the feast of St. Peter Claver who ministered to African slaves in the 17th century. He chose to do good and to treat them as people and not as animals. He shared whatever he had with those who were sick and cared for their needs, both physical and spiritual. We do good not to earn our way to Heaven but because we are baptized and need to do something with that. That is what is pleasing to God.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
