“Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.” Matthew 6:19–21

What we value determines what we do. Do you value your relationship with God? Then you will be far more likely to pray and go to Church. If that is not important to you (here I am probably preaching to the choir), those things will not matter to you. But it is easy for even the most devoted person to become distracted. So we must remain vigilant. Even when things get totally crazy, the most important thing must be our relationship with God. That will make the craziness bearable.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
