The LORD is good,
a stronghold in the day of trouble;
he knows those who take refuge in him. Nahum 1:7

God will protect His own. Now that does not mean that everything will go swimmingly all the time. But we, as His people, will be able to weather any storm that this world sends our way. Some people think that, because bad things happen, God does not care or is not present or even existent. But, as I noted yesterday, God does not always interfere in the natural course of events. That does not mean that He is not there. And it certainly does not indicate that God does not love us. Look around at creation. The glory of God is present everywhere. Those are signs of God's love for us.
