The Story and You™

Sacred Conversations

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

What does it take to make an adult cry? For me, it's always the experience of the nearness of God. Take those guys on the shore of the Galilee, for example. They fished that sea all night and came back with nothing. Just a word from Jesus, though, and the fish came racing into the nets, begging to be caught up in the great Mystery.

When Simon Peter saw this he broke down. Get away from me, Rabbi. You don't know me, and once you do you won't want anything to do with me. That's usually everyone's response when they have a God-sighting, a moment of such grace that, along with tears, comes the sense that someone else should have received this, someone better, someone worthier, someone who is...well...not us.

Don't worry, says Jesus. This was just a practice catch. From now on you and I are going to be hauling in people, billions and billions of them. So don't stress about your insufficiencies. My grace is sufficient.

You see, Jesus knows where all the fish are. He knows where to place the boats, way out in the deep. He knows where your wounds are, your losses, and your doubts. It's never in the shallows, but in the deep memories, that sadness festers.

Do you feel like you've fished all night long for a job, for friends, for love, for healing? Jesus sees you. He knows where you are in the big Sea. He wants to comfort you, to reel you into his net of communion and compassion. It's never about being worthy. It's about being welcomed.

Let Jesus catch you in his net. It's the safest place in the sea.

In what ways have you experienced the nearness of God?

La Historia y Usted™

Conversaciones Sagradas

Quinto Domingo de Tiempo Ordinario

¿Qué se necesita para hacer llorar a un adulto? Para mí, siempre es experimentar la cercanía de Dios. Ahí tenemos por ejemplo a esos hombres en la orilla del lago de Galilea. Estuvieron pescando toda la noche y regresaron con las redes vacías. Pero una sola palabra de Jesús, y los peces vinieron encarrerados, rogando ser atrapados por el gran Misterio.

Cuando Simón Pedro vio esto se desmoronó. Aléjate de mí, Maestro. No me conoces y una vez que lo hagas no querrás tener nada que ver conmigo. Esa es usualmente la respuesta de cualquier persona cuando piensan que han tenido un encuentro con Dios, un momento de tanta gracia que aparte de las lagrimas, les viene ese sentimiento, que es alguien más quien debió haber recibido esto, alguien mejor, alguien más merecedor, alguien...pues...que simplemente no sea nosotros.

No se preocupen, les dice Jesús. Esa fue una pesca de practica. De hoy en adelante estaremos pescando personas, billones y billones de personas. Así que no te estreses por tus insuficiencias. Mi gracia es suficiente.

Mira, Jesús sabe donde están los peces. Él conoce el lugar a donde debemos llevar las barcas, muy en lo profundo. Él sabe donde están tus heridas, tus perdidas y tus dudas. Nunca están en la superficie, siempre se encuentran en las memorias profundas, ahí donde la tristeza se infecta.

¿Sientes como que has estado pescando toda la noche por un trabajo, por amigos, por amor, por sanación? Jesús te ve. Él sabe en que parte del gran Mar te encuentras. El quiere reconfortarte, jalarte hasta su red de comunión y compasión. Nunca se trata de ser merecedor. Se trata de ser bienvenido.

Permite que Jesús te atrape en su red. Es el lugar más seguro en toda la mar.

¿En qué formas has experimentado la cercanía de Dios?
