The Resurrection of the Lord

It's Easter, finally! Breathe it in. Smell it. Taste it. Touch it. It's glorious, gracious Easter, arriving once again in spite of our imperfect attempts to prepare for it.

Ah, flowers. Take in that delicious Easter smell of last night's orgy of joy—the chrisms, the Candle, the cries of joy from the Elect as we dunked them with the waters of the parted Red Sea and the blessed Jordan River.

It's Easter, people! Get out your gorgeous Easter colors, your Easter hats and your white gloves, your Easter baskets and your Easter hearts, broken open by Good Friday, overflowing with joy at the news of the empty tomb.

Do you have timeless and beautiful Easter memories? If so, call them up. Thank you, Aunt Margaret, for those heavenly chocolate Easter eggs, with each of our names in gorgeous pink script.

Thank you, Sister Genevieve, for teaching us the music for Holy Week. Our Eighth grade class led all the music for the entire Triduum. As always in my life, I was in the right place at the right time.

Thank you, kind parish of my youth. You opened the choir loft to children, and the indelible mark of mission and music has never left me.

Thank you, Egeria, you intrepid fourth-century nun. You traveled from Spain to the Holy Lands to see how the Christians in Jerusalem celebrated Easter. Your fascinating diary, discovered in 1884, is the reason our Holy Weeks are so stunningly beautiful.

Thank you, St. Mary Magdalene, disciple to the disciples. Your witness rings out to the farthest reaches of the earth: the grave is empty!

Death couldn't hold the Author of Life. And it won't hold you either.

What are your favorite Easter memories?

La Resurrección de Nuestro Señor

¡Finalmente llegamos a la Pascua! Respírala. Huélela. Saboréala. Tócala. Llegó una vez más la gloriosa, preciosa Pascua, a pesar de nuestros fallidos intentos de prepararnos para recibirla.

Ay, las flores. Experimenta ese delicioso aroma Pascual del desenfreno de gozo que fue anoche—el crisma, la Vela, las exclamaciones de gozo de los Elegidos al ser sumergidos en las aguas del Río Jordán y el Mar Rojo partido en dos.

¡Ya es Pascua, hermanos! Saquen sus hermosos vestuarios de los colores de la Pascua, sus sombreros de Pascua y sus guantes blancos, sus canastas de Pascua y sus corazones de Pascua, que fueron abiertos el Viernes Santo, rebosantes de gozo por la noticia de que la tumba esta vacía.

¿Tienes algún recuerdo hermoso y eterno de la Pascua? Si lo tienes, sácalo. Gracias, Tía Margarita, por aquellos gloriosos chocolates en forma de huevos de Pascua, cada uno de ellos con nuestros nombres grabados con unas hermosas letras rosadas.

Gracias, Hermana Genoveva, por enseñarnos la música de la Semana Santa. Nuestra clase de octavo grado dirigió toda la música del Triduo. Como siempre me ha pasado en la vida, me tocó estar en el lugar correcto, en el momento correcto.

Gracias, a esa linda parroquia de mi juventud. Abriste el espacio del coro para todos los niños, y jamás me ha dejado la marca imborrable de la misión y la música.

Gracias, Egeria, moja intrépida del cuarto siglo. Viajaste desde España a la Tierra Santa a ver como celebraban los Cristianos la Pascua en Jerusalén. Tu fascinante diario, descubierto en 1884, es el motivo por el cual nuestras Semanas Santas son tan deslumbrantemente hermosas.

Gracias, Santa María Magdalena, discípulo de discípulos. Tu testimonio resuenan hasta los confines de la tierra: ¡La tumba está vacía!

La muerte no pudo detener al Autor de la Vida. Y tampoco a ti te detendrá.

¿Cuáles son tus mejores recuerdos de la Pascua?
