Divine Mercy Sunday

This is the Sunday when I most like to recall the mercies of God throughout this past year. Let me invite you into a similar meditation.

Remembering back, what victories did you have in holding your temper, in holding your tongue, in holding back a savvy “shade” on someone? That’s mercy.

Blessed are those who have not had unkind words spoken to them; more blessed indeed are those who have not spoken unkind words themselves.

What physical challenges have you overcome this year? Did you fall prey to the horrible flu, or the bad colds of this season, or even pneumonia? How blessed are you who were sick and are now well. Even more blessed are those who stayed with you, cared for you, nursed and doctored you back to health. They have shown mercy, and mercy will be shown to them.

How about your prayer life? Did you experience the comfort and companionship of the Holy Spirit as you navigated the depths of Christ’s life in you? Maybe a faith community has welcomed and loved you. For that mercy, in the winter and spring of your days this year, be grateful. Even more blessed are those who have extended that friendship and grace.

I know a little bit about mercy, because I am the endless recipient of it. On this Divine Mercy Sunday, I offer this suggestion. Find the image of Divine Mercy. Stand in front of it. Imagine the healing rays coming from the heart of Jesus pouring straight into whatever part of your body or soul is hurting. Let those rays in. The mercy of the Risen One longs to pour into you.

Jesus, we trust in you.

How can the Divine Mercy of Jesus transform you this year?

Domingo de la Divina Misericordia

Este domingo es cuando más me gusta recordar todas las misericordias que ha tenido Dios hacia mí durante el año pasado. Permíteme invitarte a una meditación similar.

Haz memoria, ¿qué victorias has logrado al controlar tu temperamento, al controlar tu lengua, al evitar presumir de sabelotodo frente a alguien? Eso fue misericordia.

Bienaventurados aquellos a los que no se les han dicho palabras desagradables; pero más bienaventurados aún son aquellos los cuales no han dicho palabras desagradables a los demás.

¿Cuáles retos físicos has superado este año? ¿Tuviste alguna caída o caíste en cama a causa de alguna terrible gripe, o tal vez los resfríos de la temporada, o inclusive una pulmonía? Que bienaventurados son aquellos los que estuvieron enfermos y ahora están saludables. Y aún más bienaventurados aquellos que permanecieron a tu lado, cuidándote, dándote auxilio como médicos privados hasta que te recuperaste. Ellos mostraron misericordia, y misericordia recibirán.

¿Y qué tal tu vida de oración? ¿Experimentaste el consuelo y la compañía del Espíritu Santo al adentrarte en la profundidad de la vida de Cristo en ti? Tal vez fuiste acogido y bienvenido por una comunidad de fe. Por esa misericordia, en el invierno y la primavera de tus días en este año, siéntete agradecido. Aún más bienaventurados son aquellos que te ofrecieron esa amistad y gracia.

Yo conozco un tanto acerca de la misericordia, porque soy receptora infinita de ella. En este Domingo de la Divina Misericordia, te ofrezco esta sugerencia. Encuentra la imagen de la Divina Misericordia. Colócate ante su presencia. Imagínate los rayos sanadores que brotan del corazón de Jesús y van directamente a esa parte de tu cuerpo y mente que te lastima. Permite que los rayos entren. La misericordia del Resucitado ahora derramarse dentro de ti.

Jesús, en ti confiamos.

¿Cómo puede transformarte este año la Misericordia de Jesús?
