Thus far: St Patrick 36% of goal, Christ the King 67% of goal, St Peter 46% of goal.

RCIA—Looking to complete your sacraments of Baptism, First Communion or Confirmation? The Rite of Christian Initiation does exactly that for Adults. We begin Tuesday, September 10, and continues on most Tuesdays to the Easter Vigil, April 11. Talk to Fr Jerry for more info.

It's never too early to sign up for Religious Education classes. There are forms at the bulletin board in the Narthex. We also have the new materials for catechists and parents and students to look over. They can be found in the Hall. They will be available next week in Haxtun and after that, in Fleming.

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Don't you feel sorry for Martha? I wish we knew what she did after Jesus advised her that she was "anxious and worried about many things." Wouldn't it be great to know that she turned off the burners on the stove and sat right down?

That, of course, begs the question, "Well, if Mary and the other disciples have chosen the better part, and if Martha should abandon dinner and sit and learn from the Teacher too, who IS going to make dinner?"

I've sort of harrumphed at this story, noting how hungry everyone would be in a few hours if no one was fixing dinner. But Jesus fixes his gaze on me and says, "Stop. Pay attention to what really happened here. Martha was fussing and fuming because Mary wasn't doing what a woman is supposed to do. She was too devoted to me, too in love with the kingdom of God. She was sitting at my feet because that's exactly where I desired her and Martha to be. Remember the scriptures. If you seek me you'll find me if you seek me with all of your heart I will be found by you (Dt. 4:29).

But that's not all that Jesus wants us to learn. St. Luke loves stories about women and about meals. During these long weeks of Ordinary Time we'll hear many stories about both, since we're reading Luke all year. Don't miss this one. It's about the discipleship of equals, of course. Mary and Martha have as much right to the Kingdom as do the male disciples. But looking deeper we can glimpse Luke's greatest theme of all: Jesus is the MEAL. Take and eat.

How is the Eucharist drawing you closer to the most important things in your life?

Decimo-Sexto Domingo de Tiempo Ordinario

¿No te da lástima Marta? Me encantaría saber qué fue lo que hizo después de que Jesús le señalo que estaba "ansiosa y preocupada por demasiadas cosas." ¿No sería bueno saber que fue y apago los mecheros de la estufa y se sentó inmediatamente?

Y por supuesto, eso nos lleva a otra pregunta, "Bueno, si María y los otros discípulos habían elegido la mejor parte, y si Marta abandonó la cena y se sentó también a aprender del maestro, entonces ¿Quién HIZO la cena?"

Yo he analizado esta historia, fijándome en que tan hambrientos estarían todos en unas horas si nadie se puso a hacer la cena. Pero Jesús fija su mirada en mí y me dice, "Detente. Pon atención en lo que realmente sucedió aquí. Marta estaba refunfuñando y echando chispas porque María no estaba haciendo lo que se supone que las mujeres debían hacer. Ella era muy devota a mí, estaba demasiado enamorada del reino de Dios. Ella estaba postrada a mis pies porque ahí es justamente donde yo quería que ella y Marta estuvieran. Recuerda las escrituras. Si me buscas me encontrarás. Si de verdad me buscas de corazón, permitiré que me encuentres. (Dt. 4:29).

Pero aún hay algo más que Jesús quiere que saquemos de esta historia. A San Lucas le encantan las historias de mujeres y de comidas. Durante estas largas semanas de tiempo ordinario, escucharemos muchas historias más acerca de ambos temas, ya que estamos leyendo San Lucas todo el año. No te pierdas esta. Se trata del discipulado de iguales, por supuesto. María y Marta tienen el mismo derecho al reino que tienen los hombres discípulos. Pero al mirar más a fondo podemos vislumbrar el tema más importante de Lucas: Jesús es la COMIDA. Tomen y coman.

¿En qué manera te acerca más la Eucaristía a las cosas más importantes de tu vida?
