Confessions Before Mass by Request

--St Raphael Counseling 720.377.1359

Clinical counseling for individuals, children, teens, couples & families. Outpatient substance abuse counseling. Post-abortion counseling. Tele & Electronic counseling also available.

With our new RE program, we will also need folks who can serve as Room Aides. The Aides will do last minute tasks, like take up attendance, photocopying, and other errands that will allow our catechists to remain with their class. If you can help in this capacity, please talk with Fr Jerry or Amy Kleve.

It's never too early to sign up for Religious Education classes.

There are forms and calendars at the bulletin board in the Narthex.

Catechists' Retreat

The Archdiocese is conducting a retreat for all catechists called “Sharing the Light of the Gospel.” It is Saturday, August 24, John-Paul II Center. Let Father Jerry know if you'd like to attend.

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

All I need to know in life I learned in catechism class in the fifties. Take prayer, for example. I'm positive that the strong building blocks of a prayerful life were placed for us in fifth grade, when Sister Genevieve taught us the four easy-to-remember steps of prayer.

"Just think of what happens at Mass," she said, writing on the board in that gorgeous nun-cursive that must have been a requirement for admission to the Sisters of Loretto:

Confess Your Failings During the Week (Confiteor)

Glorify God for all the Beauty in the World (Gloria)

Ask God for What you Need (Petitions)

Give Thanks to God in all Things (Eucharist)

That's it. Every night, look back on the day, and do an examination of conscience. It doesn't take long; the ways we've fallen short during the day tend to sit on our hearts until we bring them to light anyway. Next, give glory to God for all the ways God's goodness abounds. I usually start with remembering something beautiful in nature. Petition is the easy one, and the one that probably gets done before the first two most days. If you've ever landed on your parish prayer list you know the power of petition. Thanksgiving is easy too, and of course that's what "Eucharist" means. Always be thankful, and you'll always be filled.

Which of the four steps comes the most naturally to you?

Decimo-Séptimo Domingo de Tiempo Ordinario

Todo lo que necesito saber de la vida lo aprendí en las clases de catecismo que tomé durante los años cincuenta. La oración sería uno de los ejemplos. Estoy convencida de que al enseñarnos los cuatro pasos fáciles de recordar de cómo orar, la Hermana Genoveva construyó en nosotros esa fuerte base de una vida fundada en la oración.

"Solo piensen en lo que sucede en Misa," nos dijo, escribiendo en el pizarrón con esa letra pegada tan hermosa que debe haber sido uno de los requisitos para su admisión a las Hermanas de Loreto.

Confiesa los pecados que cometiste esta la semana (Confesión)

Glorifica a Dios por toda la Belleza del Mundo (Gloria)

Pídele a Dios todo lo que Necesitas (Petición)

Dale gracias a Dios por todas las Cosas (Eucaristía)

Es todo. Cada noche, hago un recuento de mi día y un examen de conciencia. No toma tanto tiempo; las maneras en las cuales hemos fallado durante el día de cualquier manera están en nuestras mentes, así que saquémoslas a la luz.

Después, doy gloria a Dios por todas las maneras en las que su bondad abunda. Usualmente comienzo al recordar algo bello de la naturaleza. La petición es lo fácil, y usualmente es la que a menudo hago primero que las otras dos. Si alguna vez has leído la lista de peticiones en tu parroquia podrás ver el poder de la petición.

El agradecimiento también es fácil, y claro que eso es lo que significa la “Eucaristía.” Siempre agradezcan, y siempre serán saciados.

¿Cuál de los cuatro pasos se te da más naturalmente?

PRAYER OF INTERCESSION TO MARY FOR THE NATION

O Most Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Mercy, at this most critical time, we entrust the United States of America to your loving care.

Most Holy Mother, we beg you to reclaim this land for the glory of your Son.

Overwhelmed with the burden of the sins of our nation, we cry to you from the depths of our hearts and seek refuge in your motherly protection.

Look down with mercy upon us and touch the hearts of our people.

Open our minds to the great worth of human life and to the responsibilities that accompany human freedom.

Free us from the falsehoods that lead to the evil of abortion and threaten the sanctity of family life.

Grant our country the wisdom to proclaim God’s law is the foundation on which the nation was founded, and that God alone is the True Source of our cherished rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

O Merciful Mother, give us the courage to reject the culture of death and the strength to build a new Culture of Life. Amen.
