Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

One of the interesting things about not having children of your own is that it frees you up to admire the parenting practices of all your friends.

And here's the most touching part. Watching the lucky children of my friends now parenting their own kids is like watching a home movie on fast forward. The next generation is getting all the love and warmth and ingenious parenting that they themselves received. They are giving back all that they have received, and the yield is stunning. My friend Zeenat grew up in the housing projects in Denver. She had a troubled home life, but the Catholic school system invested in her and gave her everything she needed to succeed. The Catholic School system invested in Zeenat without knowing what that investments might yield. Maybe the Catholic School didn't invest 5 talents, but they definitely invested 2 talents. Zeenat took those two talents and wove a life that yields benefits beyond herself. She is now a spokeswoman for several charities who serve at-risk children. We've heard the inspiring stories of teenagers who sleep on the bus because they have no home. They show up at school, homework done and ready to participate in theater and sports after school. And yes, a few of them have actually landed at Harvard. That's the one coin that got invested and made a fortune. Think back on your own life. What investment was made in you? Did you have attentive parents? Conscientious teachers? A school system that supported your talents? By far the greatest number of coins given us is our baptism. Having been welcomed into the communion of saints, living and dead, we are never alone a day of our lives. And, by building faith friendships---like this one, come to think of it--- we participate in the building of the Kingdom of God. The perfect investment indeed.

What investment made in you as a child has borne abundant fruit?

Trigésimo-Tercer Domingo de Tiempo Ordinario

Una de las cosas interesantes de no tener hijos propios es que te libera para admirar las prácticas de crianza de todos tus amigos. Y aquí está la parte más conmovedora.

Ver a los afortunados hijos de mis amigos que ahora son padres de sus propios hijos es como ver una película casera en avance rápido.

La nueva generación está recibiendo todo el amor, la calidez y la crianza ingeniosa que ellos mismos recibieron.

Están devolviendo todo lo que han recibido y la cosecha es asombrosa.

Mi amiga Zeenat creció en las viviendas de gobierno en Denver. Creció en una familia problemática, pero el sistema escolar católico invirtió en ella y le dio todo lo que necesitaba para triunfar.

Ella tomó esas dos monedas y ahora es portavoz de varias organizaciones benéficas que sirven a niños en riesgo.

Hemos escuchado las historias inspiradoras de adolescentes que duermen en el autobús porque no tienen hogar.

Se presentan en la escuela, con la tarea hecha y listos para participar en teatro y deportes después de clases. Y sí, algunos de ellos han llegado a Harvard. Esa es la única moneda que se invirtió y se hizo una fortuna.

Piensa en tu propia vida. ¿Qué inversión se hizo en ti? ¿Tenías padres atentos?

¿Maestros concienzudos? ¿Un sistema escolar que apoyó tus talentos?

Indiscutiblemente, la cantidad de monedas más grande se nos dio en nuestro bautismo. Habiendo sido acogidos en la comunión de los santos, vivos y muertos, nunca estaremos ni un día de nuestras vidas solos. Y, al construir amistades de fe—como esta—participamos en la construcción del Reino de Dios. Esa sí que es la inversión perfecta.

¿Cuál inversión que se hizo en ti cuando eras niño ha dado frutos en abundancia?
