BLEST ART—The Olive Wood Arts Cooperative that visited us last month send a word of gracious thanks. They were able to donate $1000 to Beit-Sahour Hospital (Shepherds' Field Hospital),

Bethlehem District, toward respirators. Thanks to all who purchased or simply took an interest in the objet d'art that were offered for sale.

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Every time that refrain for the Responsorial Psalm comes up in the lectionary---I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me---I find myself singing it all week. I hope you do, too. I hope you feel rescued.

Just in case you don't, practice this for a week. Several times a day, notice how you were rescued. Maybe you delayed changing lanes for a second, and then saw that speeding car come tearing down the lane into which you nearly drove.

Maybe you were out for your walk and happened to notice the crack in the sidewalk that wasn't there yesterday, just before you went careening into it. Maybe you had something gossip-y and mean on the tip of your tongue, and you stopped just before spitting it out into the world. Good for you. You grabbed God's grace, and you were rescued.

Sometimes the very thing that looks like failure ends up being rescue. Aren't you glad you DIDN'T end up with your junior-high girlfriend/boyfriend? (But apologies to those who did. Congratulations!)

It causes me to tremble when I think of all the things, terrible or just inconvenient, from which God has rescued me. (Someday I'll regale you with my medical history.) And you know what? All of those Rescues have built up a history of faith in me, so that when the day comes when, for any reason, I am beyond rescue, I'll remember that the same God who was faithful to me in the past will be faithful to me as I pass into the valley of the shadow of death.

That's where the greatest rescue of all is waiting for each of us.

What is your best story about being rescued? Tell someone today. It builds a reservoir of faith.

Decimotercer Domingo de Tiempo Ordinario

Cada vez que aparece en el leccionario ese estribillo del Salmo Responsorial—Te alabaré Señor, me has rescatado—me paso toda la semana cantándolo. Espero que tú también. Espero que te sientas rescatado.

En caso de que no sea así, practica esto por una semana. Varias veces al día, fijate en como has sido rescatado. Tal vez te tardaste un segundo demás en cambiar de carril, y luego viste venir un carro a toda velocidad arrasando por el carril al que estuviste a punto de entrar.

Tal vez saliste a caminar y te diste cuenta por casualidad que había una grieta en la acera que no estaba ahí ayer, justo antes de tropezarte con ella. Tal vez tenías algún chisme malvado en la punta de la lengua, y te detuviste justo antes de escupirlo al mundo. Bien por ti. Te aferraste a la gracia de Dios, y fuiste rescatado.

A veces, lo que parece un fracaso termina siendo un rescate. ¿No te alegra haber terminado con tu novia / novio de secundaria? (Pido disculpas a los que sí se casaron. ¡Felicidades!)

Me da escalofríos pensar en todas las cosas, terribles o simplemente inconvenientes, de las cuales Dios me ha rescatado. (Algún día te divertiré con mi historial médico.) ¿Y sabes qué? Todos esos rescates han construido en mí una historia de fe, de modo que, si llegara un día, por cualquier motivo, cuando esté más allá de poder ser rescatada, recordaré que el mismo Dios que me fue fiel en el pasado me será fiel cuando pase por el valle de la sombra de la muerte.

Ahí es donde nos espera el mayor rescate de todos.

¿Cuál es tu mejor historia sobre el rescate? Cuéntaselo a alguien hoy. Eso ayuda a construir una reserva de fe.
