Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

What must it have been like for that hearing-and-speech-impaired man, isolated by the profound challenges of his disability, to be drawn away from the crowd by The Healer? Trembling, he felt Jesus' fingers in his ears. He knew Jesus was expelling the Evil One when he spat, and then his fingers were on his tongue! Immediately, the beauty of language was opened to him, and the first words he heard were Be Opened.

Be Opened. What a perfect introduction to the hearing life. Be Opened, said our first-grade teachers, who were opening our eyes to the magic of letters that formed words, that formed sentences, that formed the books that opened our eyes to the world.

Be Opened, said our blessed teachers who introduced us to Jesus all those years ago, and the life-giving Good News came pouring into our hearts. Be Opened, said our parents, trying to lead us in the way that we should go. Be Opened, we say to someone who just won't hear our point of view. Be Opened, they say right back to us.

Imagine that the very first words you heard in your life were Be Opened. And, of course, you would never forget The Man who spoke those words to you. How blest was he whose ears were opened by Jesus.

His speaking came next, and oh, what words he had to tell! And shouldn't that be every one of us, so in love with Jesus that our tongues are opened? Hearing and speaking, of course, go hand in hand. As Dennis Hamm, SJ, reminds us, the more attentively we hear the Gospel, the better we can speak it.

How are you "speaking the Gospel" in your life?

Vigésimotercer Domingo de Tiempo Ordinario

¿Qué debe haber sentido aquel hombre sordomudo, aislado a causa de los tremendos retos de su incapacidad, cuando El Sanador lo llamó de entre la multitud? Temblando, sintió los dedos de Jesús en sus oídos. ¡Sabía que Jesús estaba expulsando al Maligno cuando escupió, y luego le puso los dedos en la lengua! Inmediatamente, se le abrió la belleza del lenguaje y las primeras palabras que escuchó fueron Ábrete.

Ábrete. Que introducción tan perfecta al mundo de oír. Ábrete, nos decían nuestros profesores de primer grado, mientras que abrían nuestros ojos a la magia de las letras que formaban palabras, que formaban oraciones, que formaban libros que abrían nuestros ojos al mundo.

Ábrete, nos decían nuestros bendecidos profesores cuando nos enseñaban a Jesús hace ya tantos años, así como las vivificantes Buenas Nuevas que fluían a nuestros corazones. Ábrete, decían nuestros padres, tratando de guiarnos en el camino que deberíamos seguir. Ábrete, le decimos a alguien que simplemente no quiere oír nuestro punto de vista. Ábrete nos responden ellos a nosotros.

Imagínate que las primeras palabras que oíste en tu vida fueron Ábrete. Y, por supuesto, nunca olvidarías al Hombre que te las dijo. Cuán bienaventurado fue aquel cuyos oídos fueron abiertos por Jesús.

Su habla vino después, y oh, ¡que palabras tenía que decir! ¿Y que no deberíamos estar todos así, tan enamorados de Jesús que nuestras lenguas se abran? Oír y hablar, por supuesto, van de la mano. Y como nos recuerda Dennis Hamm SJ, cuanto más atentos escuchemos el Evangelio, mejor podremos hablarlo.

¿Cómo "hablas" el Evangelio en tu vida?
