In order to keep your skills sharp over the summer, please complete the following work.

Summer Reading Titles

The Chocolate Touch: By Patrick Skene Catling

We will work with this title the first week of school

Who was George Washington? By: Roberta Edwards

Write a letter to the author. What questions would you ask? Remember you are asking the author these questions, not George Washington.

Fourth Grade Rats By Jerry Spinelli

Create a new book cover based on your favorite part of the book. You may not copy the current cover. Your illustrations should cover the entire book template and be completely colored. Be sure to include the title and the author of the book as well.
