Additional Conference Highlights

Each day at 12:50 pm - Music Showcase - World Library Publications on Wednesday, Oregon Catholic Press and Good For The Soul on Thursday, GIA Publications, Inc. on Friday

Wednesday at 12:50 pm - USCCB/FDLC Panel Presentation on Available Resources - Ever need a document, materials or aids for teaching a class or retreat? Would you like to study the documents but don’t know where to look? Come to this presentation and find out who has it and how to find it. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and the Federation of Diocesan Liturgical Commissions will answer your questions and show you how to find those resources we reference.

Wednesday at 8:30 pm - Spirit and Song Concert (Optional) - OCP will offer a unique opportunity for you to hear both new and old music performed by some of their best musicians. This event is free to conference attendees (be sure to wear your name tag).

Friday at 12:50 pm - Institute of Liturgical Ministry Showcase - The ILM will present an opportunity for a free-form open conversation/consultation time with two liturgical educators, Sr. Joyce Ann Zimmerman and Sr. Kathleen Harmon. This well-known liturgical theologian and musician team features the "best of the best" of pastoral liturgical resources.

Friday at 12:50 pm - RCL Showcase - Resources for Christian Living will present the latest in Faith Formation resource materials.
Discounts and local information for SWLC 2005 Participants

We suggest staying at the Adam’s Mark as traffic in Dallas can be daunting. Please contact the hotel directly at 214-922-8000 and mention the Southwest Liturgical Conference when you make your reservations (otherwise you may not receive the conference reduced rates).

We have negotiated a $7.00 per day rate for parking at the Adam’s Mark. Additional parking is available three blocks away at the Cathedral and the Arts District for approximately $5.00. Hemos negociado un acuerdo con el Hotel Adam’s Mark y están de acuerdo de cobrar $7.00 dólares al día para estacionarse ahí. Se puede encontrar más espacio para estacionamiento a tres cuadras de distancia en el Distrito de Artes y en la Catedral y cobrarán aproximadamente $5.00 dólares por día.

If you live in the DFW metroplex, we suggest riding the DART rail for your convenience. There is a station right next to the Adam’s Mark. Day passes for bus/rail are $2.50. Go to www.dart.org for the routes from your location. Si usted vive en el metroplex de Dallas y Fort Worth, le sugerimos que utilice el tranvía de DART para su conveniencia. Hay una estación de espera junto al hotel Adam’s Mark. Se pueden conseguir pases para todo el día por solo $2.50. Vaya al www.dart.org para conseguir las rutas de donde se hospeda a vive.

American Airlines has offered us a discount on reservations made 30 days in advance and reduced discounts for reservations made less than 30 days in advance. Discount information is available when you call 1-800-433-1790. When calling that same number to make your reservation, please use our study week authorization code A4215AE.

Super Shuttle has given us a flat discount rate of $13.00 each way from either DFW Airport or Love Field Airport. (This does not include gratuity.) You will need to mention the Southwest Liturgical Conference for this rate, otherwise you will pay $45.00 each way. You can make your reservation from the SWLC website or the Super Shuttle website (www.supershuttle.com) or you may use the coupon printed at the bottom of page 11. A copy will also be acceptable. You will need two coupons, one for traveling each way.

Each packet will contain information and discount coupons for The Sixth Floor Museum at Dealey Plaza and the Dallas Museum of Art.

Study Week Scholarship Information

The SWLC Board of Directors is offering a limited number of full registration scholarships. Contact your local Diocesan Worship Office or Liturgy Commission for details and applications. La Mesa Directiva del SWLC ofrece un número limitado de becas para el registro completo. Para más informes, detalles y aplicaciones, favor de ponerse en contacto con las Oficinas de Adoración o la Comisión de Liturgia de su Diócesis local.

Tour of Saint Joseph Catholic Church, Richardson, Texas

The long and rich tradition of the Roman Catholic faith is melded with the current views of liturgical space at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Richardson, Texas. This parish provides a dwelling place for original artwork heightening each person’s sense of mystery, reverence and awe. A columbarium containing 1,285 niches surrounds a Chartres-form labyrinth in a meditation courtyard. You will have an opportunity to walk this winding prayer path. Near the meditation courtyard, between the main sanctuary and the newly built K-8 school, is the Forum - a gathering/meeting area with a coffee bar and fireplace surrounded by smaller meeting rooms. Parishioners and non-parishioners alike are greeted here with truly generous hospitality.

On Tuesday, January 18, 2005, we will leave the hotel by bus at 1:30 pm, arriving at St. Joseph at approximately 2:00 pm. The tour is free and a light reception will be provided. We will return to the hotel at approximately 4:45 pm. A space is provided for your reservation on the conference registration form in this brochure.

Tour of the Morton H. Meyerson Symphony Center

Take an hour-long, guided tour of one of the United States’ foremost symphony halls. Just across from the Cathedral, this modern center is one of the gems of the Dallas Arts District. Space is limited for this free tour. We will walk to the Center from the Adam’s Mark at 2:30 pm on Tuesday, January 18th, returning to the hotel at approximately 5:00 pm. A space is provided for your reservation on the conference registration form in this brochure.

“Late Nite Catechism”

“Late Nite Catechism” adds the Southwest Liturgical Conference to its enrollment list on Friday, January 21, 2005 at the Adam’s Mark hotel. This one-woman show will take you back to your days at St. Whatever Catholic School. You will be transported back to 8th grade catechism class in a matter of moments.

Didn’t go to Catholic school? Not to worry. We have all heard the stories of Sister Mary Margaret, so you too will get to experience first hand the real truth about those days. Cradle Catholics will look back nostalgically to the children they once were.

This is an experience you will enjoy recalling or having for the first time. This side-splitting interactive show will be something you will talk about for years to come. Seats are limited; a space is provided for your reservation on the conference registration form. Tickets are $20.00 for conference registrants.

Keynote and Major Address Presenters

His Eminence Francis Cardinal Arinze was ordained a priest of the Archdiocese of Onitsha, Nigeria in 1958. He was ordained a bishop in 1965 and appointed Archbishop of Onitsha in June of 1967, where he served until 1984. In March of 1985, he was appointed to the Secretariat for Non-Christians (later renamed the Pontifical Council for Inter-religious Dialogue) and was elevated to the College of Cardinals in May that year. He remained as the President of this Council until October, 2002 when he was named Prefect of the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments, a post which ranks him in the number four spot in Vatican hierarchy as the head of church liturgy.

Rev. Edward Foley, O.F.M. Capuchin is professor of liturgy and music at Catholic Theological Union in Chicago. A member of the Province of St. Joseph of the Capuchin Order since 1966, he was ordained a Roman Catholic presbyter in 1975. He holds a Ph.D. in Theology from the University of Notre Dame and has authored 12 books and over 200 scholarly and pastoral articles and reviews. He also edits American Essays in Liturgy. Past-President of the North American Academy of Liturgy, he presides and preaches at St. Mary’s Catholic Church in Riverside, Illinois.

Arturo Chávez is a member of the Pastoral Team at the Mexican American Cultural Center in San Antonio, Texas. He has worked for over fifteen years in a variety of ministries, including teacher, youth minister, chaplain to incarcerated youth, community organizer and activist. He holds a Bachelor’s degree in Religious Studies from the University of the Incarnate Word and a Master’s degree in Theological Studies (with a dual emphasis on Scripture and Hispanic Ministry) from the Oblate School of Theology. Currently he is a Ph.D. Candidate in the “Religion and Social Change” Program at the University of Denver and the Iliff School of Theology. Arturo and his wife Mary coauthored the dynamic new curriculum for Latino Youth Leadership Formation called RESPETO.

Rev. J-Glenn Murray, S.J. is currently the director of the Office for Pastoral Liturgy for the Diocese of Cleveland. He was ordained in 1979 and holds a Master of Divinity degree with a concentration in liturgy from the Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley, California. He also has pursued studies in Preaching at the Aquinas Institute at Saint Louis University and Liturgy at the Catholic Theological Union in Chicago. In 1987 and 1997, he was the liturgical coordinator for the National Black Catholic Congress, as well as liturgical consultant for the same in 1992. He was the principal drafter of Plenty Good Room: The Spirit and Truth of African American Worship, a document from the Bishops’ Committee on the Liturgy and the Black Catholic Secretariat.

Dr. Megan McKenna is a theologian, lecturer, retreat leader and spiritual director. An Ambassador for Peace from the United Nations National Board of Pax Christi, she served for six years on its national council. She has taught internationally, including in Singapore, Manila, Peru, Dublin, San Francisco, Chicago and Albuquerque and received her doctorate from the Graduate Theological Union in Berkeley, California. She is a prize-winning author of 22 books, including Christ All Merciful and Not Counting Women and Children (Orbis Books), Stories of Hope and An Evening with Angels (Credence Communications).

Arturo Chávez es un miembro del Equipo Pastoral en el Centro México-Americano en la ciudad de San Antonio, Texas. Ha servido en una gran variedad de ministerios, entre ellos, maestro, ministro con los Jóvenes, Capellán para los jóvenes encarcelados, organizador en la comunidad y activista. El Señor Chávez tiene un Título de la Universidad de la Palabra Encarnada, de Estudios Religiosos, además también tiene un título de Maestría en Estudios Teológicos (con doble énfasis en el Ministerio a los Latinos y las Escrituras) de la Universidad Oblate School of Theology. Por ahora es candidato al Doctorado en “Religión y Cambio Social” en un programa en la Universidad de Denver y la Escuela Iliff School de Teología. Arturo y su esposa Mary son coautores de un nuevo currículo de formación para la Juventud Latina de Liderazgo titulado RESPETO.
W1 RCIA: Time for a Mid-Course Correction
Dr. Jerry Galipeau

Using data collected for his doctoral thesis, as well as material from the U.S. Bishops’ study on the implementation of the RCIA, Jerry will share some of the challenges to the current practice of Christian Initiation. Be prepared to refocus on the vision of the RCIA. Learn practical ways to reshape the parish initiation process so that discipleship and conversion are at the heart of the faith journey of catechumens and candidates.

W2 Foundational Values of the Prayerful Community
Rev. Henry Petter and Anthony R. Floo

Do our communities of faith mirror the core values of the Judeo-Christian tradition or do they mirror the values of the dominant culture? This workshop will examine the core values that cut across the scriptures of the Hebrew and Christian traditions in contrast to the values of the dominant culture. The workshop will explore the entry points to conversion, the DNA of leadership and the role of the prophetic leader. We also will look at developing and fostering leadership that opens avenues for prayer and spiritual growth within the community.

W3 Beyond the Readings: Preaching the Whole of the Liturgy - Rev. Ed Foley, O.F.M. Capuchin

Many clergy have done an excellent job of preaching the Scriptures; it is surprising, however, that many do not preach the whole of the liturgy which is the proper matter for the homily. This workshop will explore the dogmatic and communicative reasons why the whole of the liturgy is to be preached, and offer practical suggestions of how such preaching can be done.

W4 Reconciliation: The Power of Mercy
Rev. Leon Strider

While this great sacrament has gone through a most dramatic history, and presently may still appear to be in decline, it is actually making a grace-filled return. More people are availing themselves of the celebration of God’s forgiveness, but we must know what Jesus and the Scriptures proclaim - “I have come to save what was lost.”

W5 Planning for a Multicultural Community’s Feast
Pedro Rubalcava

We will dialogue on the issues and areas that need to be addressed in planning Eucharistic Celebrations with and for your multicultural community. Repertoire and practical suggestions are included.

W6 Are You Too Tired to Pray?
Rev. Robert Coerver

The call to ministry must be responded to by a person who has a profound, deep, integrated spirituality. Fatigue, stress, and other external sources can disrupt the inner harmony which is an essential element in the person or the minister. HELP!!!

W7 Considering Age Specific Liturgy: Life Teen and Beyond
Rev. Scott Brubaker

There is a desire to make the liturgy relevant to teens, but we also need teens to share the relevancy of their lives with the Sunday assembly. Life Teen has been one answer, but are there other approaches?

W8 Sunday-Weekday-Triduum Celebrations in the Absence of a Presbyter - Michael R. Prendergast

When a faith community is unable to celebrate the Sunday Eucharist, the Church tells us that the community must still gather to celebrate the Lord’s Day. What are the theological, liturgical, ecclesial and pastoral issues surrounding these celebrations?

W9 Tres y Quince Años: Feeding and Dancing with the Spirit of Tradition and Catechesis
Sr. Esther Guerrero, MCDP

In this workshop, we will explore the meaning of rituals, traditions, celebrations and history as a means for evangelization and catechesis. Different models of celebration and preparation for these traditions will be presented. Using these celebrations as a teachable moment will allow the youth and their families to have a full, conscious and active participation in the Eucharist and on their faith journey.

W10 GIRM: Knowing Which Fork to Use
Rev. Paul Turner

Sifting through the many liturgical laws in the General Instruction of the Roman Missal is like figuring out the proper etiquette at a banquet. Learn more about the practical and the profound, and learn how to implement the vision – not just the particulars – at a typical mass in your parish.

W11 Sacraments: A Family Affair
Butch and Linda Moses and Msgr. Jerome Dueyman

Parents are the primary educators in the faith. All members of the family play an active part in the education of the younger members (GDC 255). Making these opportunities fun as well as meaningful increases family participation. As we foster a stronger faith community, we build stronger domestic churches. In this workshop, we will explore ways to partner with families in sacramental preparation, RCIA and religious formation.

W12 Teach Them! Reach Them!
Dr. Eleanor Brownell

How can we reach today’s highly energetic, internet focused, media-influenced, overly-scheduled, peer-pressured young people? This session will explore catechetical strategies that will engage young people in ways that touch their hearts and minds.

Each workshop will be taped unless there is an asterisk (*) by the workshop number.
Wednesday, January 19, 2005 - Afternoon Workshops - Session 2 - 3:45 p.m. to 4:45 p.m.

W13  What is All the Singing About? Liturgical Music and the Paschal Mystery
Sr. Kathleen Harmon, SNDdeN, MM, PhD

This session explores the paschal mystery as the core of both Christian living and liturgy, and then suggests in concrete and challenging ways how liturgical music – particularly liturgical singing – engages us in this mystery and enables us to surrender more fully to its transformative power.

W14  The Future of the Lay Ecclesial Ministries: Are We Ready For Certified Pastoral Associates?
Deacon Charlie Stump

After Vatican II, the Church moved very quickly into sacred ritual within liturgical worship without the parishioner in the pew truly being able to grasp consciously and spiritually what was happening. Even today, the face of the Church is still changing. A different perspective of liturgy has come with the evolution of lay ecclesial ministers. What will be the next step in the formation and certification of pastoral associates specializing in liturgy?

W15  Worship Space: Encounter with the Glory of God
Msgr. Don Fischer, Msgr. Larry Pichard, Lyle Novinski and Joseph J. Patti

The four presenters are all members of the Diocese of Dallas Subcommission on Environment and Art. Three of them have reviewed each new and renovated sacred space in the diocese for the past thirty years. Working from liturgical documents and years of experience, they will explore the many ways to create a worship space that enhances the worshippers’ sense of the beauty and the presence of God.

W16  Hispanic Music: A Language of Faith
Mary Frances Reza

Music strengthens and nourishes the faith of a people, and forms an “attitude toward religion.” It is important to develop a common repertoire that supports the vision of the liturgy. A rich resource of Hispanic and bilingual music is available that nourishes our faith and unveils another dimension of meaning and feeling as we celebrate.

W17  Not Created Equal: Liturgical Documents and Interpretation
Very Rev. John M. Foster, JCL

Liturgical documents come from different offices and in various forms. Interpreting liturgical law depends on knowing the weight of a document, its form, and the very text used. With more documents issued by the Holy See, the USCCB and by diocesan bishops, the skill and art of interpreting liturgical law is useful for priests, deacons and lay ministers.

W18  Bless the Children, Teach the Adults: Jesus’ Plan for Faith Formation
Dr. Daniel J. Luby

This workshop will include a look at some key principles for forming adult faith and a conversation about strategies for practical implementation in real-life parish circumstances.

W19  Deacons and Priests: Partners in Ministry
Rev. Stephen Bird and Deacon Max Schwarz

As the makeup of parishes around our country continues to change, we need to explore new ways of serving our people. In some situations, deacons are not used to their fullest potential. This workshop will look at various ways that priests and deacons can work together as they share in the liturgical and ministerial life of the parish.

W20  Christ Behind Bars: Prison Ministry Today
Deacon Richard Lopez

This workshop will explore how to develop and recommend program guidelines, policies and procedures, and monitor and evaluate chaplaincy programs to provide for the religious needs of offenders of all faiths in our prisons today. We also will look at the art of communicating with agencies, civic groups, members of the clergy, working with volunteers and participating in outreach programs.

W21  Wedding Liturgies: Pitfalls and Possibilities
Rev. Ron Krisman

Nearly fifteen years have passed since the second typical edition of the Ordo Celebrandi Matrimonium was issued in Latin on March 19, 1990. While we wait in joyful hope for the English and Spanish translations of that liturgical book in the United States, what can we do to improve the quality of wedding liturgies? What are the (already operative) norms of the 1990 ritual? How can parish ministers assist couples in preparing the liturgy for their marriage? What needs to be avoided?

W22  Mama Wants to be Cremated. Now What?
Chris Taylor and Deacon Arnold Picon

Our society and Church is now so mobile that the comforts of many of our family burial traditions have been forgotten. How can we best facilitate liturgically appropriate funeral services that honor both personal and Church values?

W23  Liturgy Committees: Old Hat or New Age?
Dr. Dolly Sokol

Since Vatican II, the organization known as the parish liturgy committee has arisen. Forty years after the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, we need to ask ourselves, “Is the parish liturgy committee ‘old hat’? Is it still needed? If so, what should it do? Does the parish liturgy committee need to re-invent itself for a ‘new age’?” Come and explore these questions and others in an interactive workshop of sharing and discerning together!

* This session will not be taped.

W24  What’s Behind the Rubrics?
Sr. Joyce Ann Zimmerman, CPPS, Ph.D., STD

Much has been said about the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) and much has been implemented. What is the strength of its life!
Thursday, January 20, 2005 - Morning Workshops - Session 3 - 10:45 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.

T1  Answering God’s Ongoing Call / Hello!
God’s Calling - Rev. Josef Vollmer-König
and Sr. Margaret Langseth, CSFN

We all have a vocation in life. Throughout our lives God continues to prepare us for the plan he has for us. We need to be open and see his actions in our lives as we are instruments of God’s call to others. What is a Religious vocation? What makes it different from other vocations? Can you serve God without becoming a Religious? Why would someone want to become a Religious today?

T2  Multicultural Liturgies: Ideals, Problems and Solutions - Dr. Linda O’Brien-Rothe

This workshop will explore the Christian values that are the basis for multicultural celebrations. We will also address common problems and suggest solutions.

T3  Building Bridges: How to Use Music to Bring Together the Generational Gap of the Church
John Angotti

Come and hear how to bring people together through the power of music. Learn creative techniques on how to make an old song new and how to ignite your congregation with sounds that meet generations on the common ground of our communal worship.

T4  Questions & Answers About Liturgy
Very Rev. John M. Foster, JCL

The liturgy belongs to the Church yet, so often, lifelong Catholics and even parish ministers are at a loss to explain certain rituals and the values underlying liturgical law to inquiring friends. Some may wonder why this or that practice happens in other parishes but not in their own. Now is a chance to ask your questions.

T5  Wedding Liturgies: Pitfalls and Possibilities
Rev. Ron Krisman

See Wednesday afternoon workshop W21.

T6  Lectors: Ambassadors for Christ; God Appealing Through Us (2 Cor. 5:20) - Dr. Dolores Martinez

What is involved in a preparation for the profound proclamation of God’s word? How do I become an authentic proclaimer of that word? How does proclaiming the word of God enrich my prayer life? How does that prayer life transform me in my call to holiness?

T7  The Human Church at the Eucharist: Reconciliation! Remembrance! Rejoicing!
Sr. Maureen Sullivan, O.P., Ph.D

The story of the disciples on the road to Emmaus is central to our understanding of the human church and its celebration of the Eucharist. We are called to a great feast, nourished and sent forth to be Eucharist to each other. As imperfect disciples, we have not yet reached our final destination. Each Eucharist calls us to accept who we are and pray, “Lord, have mercy.” Through this prayer we become aware of our human limitations and need for conversion.

T8  To Teach as Jesus Did: Inclusion of Persons with Disabilities in our Catholic Communities
Theresa Frances

This workshop will begin with an overview of disabilities in an effort to reduce the fear and build understanding of the gifts that we all bring to our church community. Also included will be a section on ways to include the person with a disability in not only the liturgy, but in religious education activities as well.

T9  African-American Church Music: Not Just for African-American Parishes
Edwin Day

This workshop will provide a voices-on experience of music by African-American composers published by GIA, OCP, WLP and others. Special emphasis will be placed on the liturgical use of this music. A handout will be distributed with all three years of the liturgical cycle and placement of African-American music throughout the liturgical year, including scripture references.

T10  Walking With Jesus: A Lenten Journey
Dr. Bob Hurd

This presentation explores the stories and scriptures of Lent, highlighting the unfolding images and themes within each cycle (A, B, C), and showing how music can minister God’s word to the gathered Church. Bob’s new collection, “A Lenten Journey,” will be featured along with other musical resources. Materials and music will be available through Oregon Catholic Press.

This session will not be taped.

T11  Shut-In, Closed Off, Sick and Abandoned
Rev. Scott Brubaker and Rev. Roger Dorcy

Healing and hope for the sick involves more than rote formula. The touch of the community needs to be felt as we pray with our sick. How can the rites more fully offer love and support for healing?

T12  So, What’s Good About GIRM?
Sr. Joyce Ann Zimmerman, CPPS, Ph.D., STD

This workshop will explore the great impetus the General Instruction of the Roman Missal gives to such celebration issues as silence, unity and the participation of the assembly.

Thursday, January 20, 2005 - Afternoon workshops - Session 4 - 3:45 p.m. to 4:45 p.m.

T13  Liturgias Multiculturales: Ideales, Problemas y Soluciones - Dr. Linda O’Brien-Rothe

Este taller va a explorar los valores Cristianos que forman la base de las celebraciones multiculturales. Se tratarán también, los problemas más comunes y se proporcionarán sugerencias para solucio-

T14 Paschal Mystery: Spirituality for Cantors
Sr. Kathleen Harmon, SNDdeN, MM, Ph.D.

This session explores how the responsorial psalm acts as a bridge leading from the first reading to encounter with Christ in the Gospel. Preparation of the responsorial psalm must begin, then, with reflection on the Gospel and how the psalm and gospel together invite the cantor to a deeper living of the paschal mystery.

T15 Music for Funerals and the Bereavement Process
Joe Coleman

The Congregation for Divine Worship has decreed that the Church, as a tender mother, seeks by means of its funeral rites not only to commended the dead to God but also to raise the hope of its children and give witness to its own faith in the future resurrection of the baptized with Christ. This workshop examines the integral role of music in the rites and the bereavement process.

T16 The Tools of Our Craft: The Work of the Music Minister in the Parish - Dan Girardot

Music ministers are called to formation in spirituality, liturgy, musicianship and leadership. Explore these four areas and their relationship to the nature of ritual action. The interplay between these elements and all the liturgical ministries is a key to parish worship.

T17 The Eucharistic Prayer: Echoing Jesus’ Call to Non-Violence? - Sr. Patricia Ridgley, SSMN

Participants will examine several Eucharistic Prayers through the lens of Jesus’ call to non-violence. Discussion will explore pastoral consequences of this consciousness.

T18 Taizé Prayer in Your Parish
David Anderson

Have you ever experienced the beauty and simplicity of the music and prayer of Taizé? Explore ways to incorporate this ecumenical prayer into your community. Discover why people are drawn to this contemplative prayer experience and discuss the ecumenical implications for unity and reconciliation. Come prepared to sing!

T19 The Eucharist and Our Life as Church: John Paul II’s Ecclesia de Eucharista
Rev. Gavin Vaverik

John Paul II was an active participant in Vatican II. Now, 40 years later, he invites us to live more deeply the mystery of faith encountered in the Eucharist, the font and summit of the Christian life (SC 10, LG 11). On Holy Thursday 2003, the Pope offered his most recent encyclical containing his reflection that the Church draws her life from the Eucharist. How does this vision challenge us to more fully, consciously and actively participate in the liturgy?

T20 Making Bridges: Academy to Pew
Dr. Brian Schmisek

This presentation will highlight the many opportunities available for adult education in the Church today. We will discuss learning models appropriate for adults and how these learning models are utilized in local and national programs.

T21 Sign, Symbol and Gesture: Exploring the Depths of Their Meaning
Rev. Cliff Jacobson

Much of our liturgical practice revolves around the effective use of symbol and gesture and the understanding of what we use and do in liturgy. But do we really understand their meaning? Do we reflect on their depth? This workshop will explore our use of sign, symbol and gesture in liturgy, and we will experience a method for breaking open the depth and richness of our liturgical symbol and gesture.

T22 Feeding the Flesh, Feeding the Spirit
Dr. Megan McKenna

What do we actually live on? Sustenance and substance, bread and wine, hunger for holiness and justice are all ingredients in the same recipe, courses at a meal shared. Jesus’ stories and meals reveal what are the essentials for a healthy diet for body and soul for his friends. Come, listen, feed, feast, share and know fullness and fasting as a way of life, first lived, then known ritually.

T23 Managing the Risk: Are Our Children Ever Completely Safe? - Wayne Sandy

Learning from our past, we must make sure that our children, youth and vulnerable adults are kept safe. This workshop is an overview of what the Dallas Diocese is doing in this area with a ministerial approach.

T24 Worship Space: Encounter with the Glory of God
Msgr. Don Fischer, Msgr. Larry Pichard, Lyle Novinski and Joseph J. Patti

See Wednesday afternoon workshop W15.

Friday, January 21, 2005 - Morning workshops - Session 5 - 10:45 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.

F1 Offering the Gospels for Young People
Dr. Eleanor Brownell

The Gospels are stories that have a profound message. The message is usually one idea worth remembering. This workshop will explore the varied Gospel stories, practicing ways to master the sacred art of storytelling.

F2 Children and the RCIA: Formation in Discipleship
Dr. Jerry Galioupe

Explore the Second Vatican Council’s vision for initiation and how that vision shapes the formation and catechetical methods a parish employs in the initiation of children of catechetical age. This workshop will offer practical ways to move from the informational to the formational model of catechumenal catechesis for children.
(Continued) Friday, January 21, 2005 - Morning Workshops - Session 5 - 10:45 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.

F3  GIRM: Knowing Which Fork to Use
    Rev. Paul Turner

See Wednesday morning workshop W10.

F4  Entrenando a los Proclamadores de la Palabra
    Deacon Jesse Olivarez

El ministerio de Lector es un ministerio práctico, al final se puede hacer bien o mal. La palabra puede estar siendo vivificada o entorpecida. La buena proclamación de la Palabra puede ayudar a edificar la fe... pero una proclamación pobre la puede dañar. Este taller establecerá un esquema para el entrenamiento de los Proclamadores enfocado en los documentos litúrgicos.

F5  Thank God It’s Sunday! The Supreme Day of Faith
    Judy Kullman

Inspired by Pope John Paul II’s 1998 Apostolic Letter, “Dies Domini,” TGIS® Thank God It’s Sunday!™ is an original and creative message proclaiming Sunday as first and foremost the Lord’s Day. Through the use of humor, original music, poetry and support materials, TGIS® originator Judy Kullman will enthusiastically promote Sunday to be the “Supreme Day of Faith!”

F6  Eucharist and Mission: To Whom Are We Sent Forth?
    - Sr. Patricia Ridgley, SSFN

This workshop will explore the third dimension of the conference’s theme: Sent Forth. Who is called to mission in today’s world? Where are the new places of mission? Models of mission based in the local church will be examined, as well as implications for liturgical integration of the call to global solidarity.

F7  El Músico Pastoral en el Banquete Divino
    Pedro Rubalcava

Para poder participar plenamente, conscientemente y activamente en la liturgia y dirigir el canto de la asamblea, será necesario tener un buen conocimiento de la dinámica de la liturgia, de sus ritos y cómo el canto sirve a estos. Repertorio y sugerencias prácticas.

F8  Música Hispana Litúrgica: Una Lenguaje de Fe
    Mary Frances Reza

La música fortalece y alimenta la fe del pueblo. Es importante desarrollar cantos que nutren la fe y edifiquen la visión de la Liturgia. Este taller presentará recursos de música que significan éste sentimiento.

F9  The Liturgical Year: Reasons for the Seasons
    Msgr. Larry Pichard

Advent, Christmas, Epiphany, Lent, Easter, “Ordinary Time”... Where did they come from? How did they evolve? What are we supposed to do with them?

F10 Harmony in Faith: The Asian Presence in Parish Ministry
    Ken Canedo

The Asian Community is a growing presence in our parish ministries. Utilizing the U.S. Bishops’ recent document “Harmony in Faith,” this workshop will explore practical pastoral approaches to welcoming the Filipino, Vietnamese, Korean, Chinese and other Asian communities into the life of the parish. Emphasis will be given to understanding and respecting cultural traditions and approaches and in nurturing the gifts that Asian Catholics can bring to enrich the Church.

F11 * Liturgy Committees: Old Hat or New Age?
    Dr. Dolly Sokol

See Wednesday afternoon workshop W23.

* This session will not be taped.

F12 The Eucharistic Prayer: It’s Our Prayer
    Mary McLarry

It’s not just “Father’s prayer” - it is the great thanksgiving prayer of the whole community and each of us should take ownership of these words. Geared but not limited to ministers of communion, this session will lead participants to follow various words or phrases that open the richness of this central act of our faith to our lives.

F13 Preparing Children for Liturgy
    David Anderson

For all who work with children, this workshop will explore music and principles that help children celebrate and live the liturgy in their daily lives.

F14  Tres y Quince Años: Alimentado y Bailando con el Espíritu de Tradición y Catequesis
    Sr. Esther Guerrero, MCDP

En este taller, veremos el significado de rituales, tradiciones, celebraciones y historia como medios de evangelización y catequesis. Diferentes modelos de celebración y preparación para estas tradiciones serán presentados. Usando estas celebraciones como un medio de enseñanza ayudar á los jóvenes y a sus familias a tener una participación activa, consciente y plena en la Eucaristía y en su jornada de fe.

Henry Mitchell, the noted Black African-American homilist, has opined that it is “difficult to kill culture.” Indeed, it is impossible. This workshop will explore what many have called the “soul and genius” of the Black African-American culture. It is hoped that this brief exploration will assist those who wish to minister in a significant way among a people whose culture has not been killed, but has in fact contributed to the building up of the multidimensional culture that is ours in the United States of America.

F16 Creating Sacred Space for Healing Our Youth
    Arturo and Mary Baez Chavez

Arturo Chavez and Mary Baez Chavez will show how a committed group of adults can create safe spaces in their parish where youth can share their stories, build community and support each other in mission. As the authors of the new program for youth leadership formation, RESPETO, they will share key themes that are integral to ministry with and to all youth, but in particular, Latino youth.

 We reserve the right to change this workshop to English based on participation.
F17 Building Bridges: How to Use Music to Bring Together the Generational Gap of the Church
John Angotti
See Thursday morning workshop T3.

F18 Let the Song Spring Forth! The Role of the Cantor in the Parish - Dan Girardot
Explore the spirituality and skills of the cantor that will empower the sung prayer of the assembly. Identify ways cantors can enliven sung prayer and allow space for the assembly’s song to spring forth! Discover techniques of gesture, microphone use, preparation and repertoire that support the spirituality at the core of this ministry.

F19 Considering Age Specific Liturgy: Life Teen and Beyond - Rev. Scott Brubaker
See Wednesday morning workshop W7.

F20  Celebrando los Ritos de RICA
Joe Coleman
Repaso de las celebraciones en las diferentes etapas del proceso. Discusión de la música que se puede usar en cada etapa del proceso.

F21  Entrenando a los Proclamadores de la Palabra
Deacon Jesse Olivarez
Consulte las instrucciones del taller de la mañana F4.

F22 Sunday-Weekday-Triduum Celebrations in the Absence of a Presbyter - Michael R. Prendergast
See Wednesday morning workshop W8.

F23 Hospitality Ministry Begins at the Door: Welcoming All Who Come - Sr. Lois Paha, O.P.
In this workshop, we will look at how we can be communities of welcome and hospitality on Sunday and throughout the week. Special attention will be given to the usher/greeter ministry as it has developed over the years. Bring your own success stories and concerns as we “Come to the Feast.”

F24 In the Grasp of the Spirit: Conversion and Commitment - Sr. Maureen Sullivan, O.P., Ph.D.
The sacrament of Baptism must be understood in the context of both Jesus’ baptism and our own. Jesus emerged from his baptism filled with the Spirit, and rose from the dead to “give” that same Spirit, enabling people to live differently. By baptism, we undergo a conversion and walk in the newness of life like the Risen Christ. Do we truly comprehend the power of the Holy Spirit in our lives?

F25 * Liturgy of the Hours: How to Start and Do Morning and Evening Prayer
Rev. John Thomas Lane, S.S.S.
This workshop will go through the history and introduction to the Liturgy of the Hours and how you can easily begin this “prayer of the church” in your local parish.

F26 Sacraments: A Family Affair
Butch and Linda Moses and Msgr. Jerome Duesman
See Wednesday morning workshop W11.

F27  Lectores: Embajadores de Cristo; Dios Mismo Exhortando por Medio de Nuestra Boca (2 Cor. 5:20) - Dr. Dolores Martinez
¿De qué se compone una preparación profunda para la proclamación de la palabra de Dios? ¿Cómo llega uno a ser un proclamador auténtico de esa palabra? ¿Cómo puede la palabra de Dios enriquecer mi vida de oración? ¿Y cómo puede esa vida de oración transformarme en mi llamado hacia la santidad?

F28  La Plegaria Oración Eucarística: Es Nuestra Oración
Sr. Yolanda Cruz, SSMN
No es la “oración para el Padre” nadamás – es la gran acción de gracias de toda la comunidad, y cada uno de nosotros deberíamos poseer estas palabras. Preparada para los Ministros de la Eucaristía, pero no es exclusiva, esta sesión llevará a los participantes a seguir las varias palabras o frases que abrirán las riquezas de este acto central de nuestra fe, a nuestra vida cotidiana.

F29 Are You Too Tired to Pray?
Rev. Robert Coerver
See Wednesday morning workshop W6.

F30 * Walking With Jesus: A Lenten Journey
Dr. Bob Hurd
See Thursday morning workshop T10.

F31 Calling Young Disciples to the Feast
Tom Tomaszek
Why do we still treat children and youth as the “future” of the Church when they are already baptized members of our assembly? They have God-given talents and abilities that the Body of Christ needs to fully function in today’s challenging world. This session will focus on practical ways we can invite young people into full participation in our Eucharistic communities, especially through music, symbol and hospitality.

F32 Making Bridges: Academy to Pew
Dr. Brian Schmisek
See Thursday afternoon workshop T20.

*This session will not be taped.

 We reserve the right to change this workshop to English based on participation.

 Reservamos el derecho de cambiar este taller al idioma Inglés basado en el interes demostrado a participar.

God’s great love calls each of us through baptism to share in the divine life of the Trinity. As disciples, we become the fragrance of Christ Jesus to the world around us as we journey from the cross towards the heart of our faith. We are called by name, fed by the Eucharist and sent forth to walk in the shoes of the prophet.

El gran amor de Dios llama a cada uno de nosotros por medio de nuestro bautismo a compartir la vida divina de la Trinidad. Como discípulos, somos la fragancia de Cristo alrededor del mundo al caminar de la cruz hacia el corazón de nuestra fe. Somos llamados por nombre, alimentados por la Eucharistía y enviados a caminar en los zapatos del profeta.
