Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

Each year the Christian community gathers in prayer with the confident hope of healing all that is divided in Christ's Body. We do so to answer Christ's call that "All be one" (John 17:21). This year, Bishop Fabbro, CSB, has asked us to gather with the Anglican Diocese of Huron on Wednesday, Jan. 23 at 7:30 pm at St. Paul's Cathedral (Queen's and Richmond, London) for a time of prayer and fellowship. All are welcome. Please visit www.dol.ca/events/week-of-prayer-for-christian-unity for more information.

For everything there is a season....

A time to die.....

May they rest in peace

Special Request:

Your prayers and remembrance of our sick and homebound parishioners is greatly appreciated. We have many of our parishioners who are also living in nursing homes or retirement homes and certainly appreciate being remembered in your prayers. In many cases, it is impossible for them to be with us on the weekend for our Sunday liturgies so knowing that we are remembering them makes them feel more apart of the parish community.

As I have indicated in the past, our homebound and nursing home residents have the great opportunity to receive the gift of the Eucharist weekly due to the generous volunteers bringing them the Eucharist. We could certainly use the help of many more in assisting them. Please give Fr. Rick a call at the office and he will give you more information as to how you might help out.

Liturgy of the Word (readers) and Sunday Ministers of the Altar (servers and Eucharistic ministers) are always in need as well.

Discernment Retreat Weekend

What is a Come and See Weekend?

It is a weekend for men who are considering a call to the priesthood. Jesus invited men to "come and see" what it meant to be a follower of his during his public ministry, and the Lord continues to offer a similar invitation today. The weekend is a chance to check out what is involved in a call to the priesthood and to spend some quiet time with the Lord to figure it out.

For more information or to register for the upcoming weekend, contact: Fr. Patrick Bénéteau
