FROM THE ADMINISTRATOR
Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

I was received into the full communion of the Catholic Church in 1985 at the age of 20. One delight for me in acquiring the Catholic faith was the discovery of typology—the word Bible scholars use when one thing or person in the Bible kinda-but-not-totally represents another. One example of typology is the Ark of the Covenant as a representation of the blessed virgin Mary. Like Mary, the Ark contains God’s Word and is described as his resting place. Like Mary, the Ark is preserved from the ordinary contamination of the world. And consider how the fate of both the Ark and Mary were hidden from worldly powers:

The prophet [Jeremiah] having received an oracle, ordered that the tent and the ark should follow with him, and that he went out to the mountain where Moses had gone up and had seen the inheritance of God. Jeremiah came and found a cave-dwelling, and he brought there the tent and the ark and the altar of incense; then he sealed up the entrance. Some of those who followed him came up intending to mark the way, but could not find it. When Jeremiah learned of it, he rebuked them and declared: “The place shall remain unknown until God gathers his people together again and shows his mercy. Then the Lord will disclose these things, and the glory of the Lord and the cloud will appear, as they were shown in the case of Moses, and as Solomon asked that the place should be specially consecrated.”
2nd Maccabees 2:4-8

God’s temple in heaven was opened, and the ark of his covenant was seen within his temple; and there were flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder, an earthquake, and heavy hail. A great portent appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. She was pregnant and was crying out in birth pangs, in the agony of giving birth. Then another portent appeared in heaven: a great red dragon, with seven heads and ten horns, and seven diadems on his heads. His tail swept down a third of the stars of heaven and threw them to the earth. Then the dragon stood before the woman who was about to bear a child, so that he might devour her child as soon as it was born. And she gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron. But her child was snatched away and taken to God and to his throne; and the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God....
Revelation 11:1—12:6

Thursday, August 15, is the solemnity of the Assumption of the blessed virgin Mary, a holy day of obligation. It commemorates Mary’s bodily assumption into Heaven at the end of her earthly life, so that her body was hidden away from worldly corruption. The assumption honors Mary’s body as the vessel of our Lord Jesus, but it also points to God’s will that we should be saved from the corruption of this world. Please note the special Mass schedule for the day and attend in honor of Mary and in hope of our bodily salvation.

✕ Please remember our parish assemblies in September:

- St. Malachy: September 14 at 5:15 p.m. or September 15 at 12:15 p.m.
- St. John of God: September 21 at 5:45 p.m. or September 22 at 11:00 a.m.
- Holy Trinity: September 28 at 6:15 p.m. or September 29 at 1:15 p.m.

You’ll be able to ask questions and to submit written feedback. If it is not convenient for you to attend an assembly in your own parish, please know that you may attend any of the others and your feedback will be accepted from any assembly, even if not in your home parish.
