

Archangel Gabriel Faith Formation Family Catechesis FAQ

Why did Archangel Gabriel Parish switch from a traditional model of catechesis to a family model of catechesis this year?

We switched to Family Catechesis (Fam Cat) this year to better accomplish our mission of supporting parents in their role as primary educators of their children in the faith. This is explained in detail in the video located here: https://youtu.be/uuAbv8upR\_I. If you have not yet watched this video, please do so.

Is Family Catechesis taking place in-person or virtually this year?

For the fall semester (September 27-December 20), Fam Cat is only being offered virtually. We hope to offer both in-person and virtual instruction for the spring semester (January 3-May 23). This determination will be made in December and families will be notified regarding the status of the spring semester.

Why was it decided to have only virtual sessions for the fall?

The reasoning for moving to all virtual instruction is as follows:

- Virtual instruction best protects catechists, students, and parents by reducing exposure to others and limiting potential spread of the virus.
- Offering only virtual instruction allows us to better ensure quality formation by eliminating the distractions that come with the stringent guidelines associated with in-person instruction. We refuse to sacrifice the quality of formation for any reason, as the faith formation of our families continues to be our top priority.
- As other institutions begin to reopen, we have seen a spike in COVID-19 cases and a sudden need for these institutions to move to virtual instruction anyway. Starting with all virtual instruction allows us to be proactive, maintain consistency, and take control of the situation from the start.

How will the live virtual sessions work?

For virtual instruction, sessions will take place via Zoom so that families can participate remotely and in real time. Parents will receive an email through Flocknote with a link to join the session (this link will be sent a few days prior to the session). The session will begin with prayer and a parent/child sharing activity, followed by a presentation on the session theme, and then small group discussion. Sessions take place approximately once a month. In between the live virtual sessions, parents will be teaching their children the lessons at home (usually five chapters per theme).

Who attends the virtual sessions? Parents? Children? Both?

Both parents and children should attend the beginning of the virtual session so we can pray together and then do the sharing activity together. Following prayer and the sharing time, only the parents need to stay for the remainder of the session. The primary purpose of these sessions is to equip the parents with the tools necessary to teach their children the lessons at home. That is why it is the parents who attend the bulk of the sessions.

Why isn't each individual grade having their class livestreamed?

There are two reasons for this. The first is that we do not have the capability to have ten livestreams taking place at the same time (one for the parents, and nine for the students in each grade K-8). The second reason is that it is unreasonable to ask your family to all attend at the same time. This would require multiple devices (not to mention reliable wifi) to which not every family has access.

What are the session dates for my section?

Please go to archangelgabrielparish.org/children and under "Files and Forms" select these documents: Fam Cat Schedule and Fam Cat Schedule by Section. This will give you all the dates for your section.

What are the four sections of Family Catechesis?

- Matthew Section – Sunday morning from 8:30 AM to 9:50 AM
- Mark Section – Sunday morning from 11:05 AM to 12:25 PM
- Luke Section – Sunday morning from 8:30 AM to 9:50 AM
- John Section – Sunday evening from 5:30 PM to 6:50 PM

What are the seven themes and what am I teaching my children at home?

There are seven themes: 1) Creed, 2) Sacraments, 3) Advent/Christmas, 4) Moral Life, 5) Prayer, 6) Lent/Holy Week/Easter, and 7) New Evangelization. Each of these themes has several lessons. Parents receive large group instruction and participate in small group discussion so they are able to teach their children each theme's lessons at home.

What materials will I use for Family Catechesis?

The children will receive a physical textbook. Parents will use the online "At Home Edition" which provides lesson plans to guide their teaching. There are also interactive study guides to help your child review the information they have learned. Links to these materials can be found at archangelgabrielparish.org/children under "Resources for Parents."

How will my child's catechist know how my child is progressing at home?

After you and your child learn and review the lesson, your child will complete the online Interactive Chapter Review and you will email the results to their catechist (except Kindergarten students).

I sent the Interactive Chapter Review results to my child's catechist but they did not receive them. Does my child have to take the ICR over again?

No, your child does not need to take the ICR again. We have had some trouble with our catechist emails but the issues are being worked out and the catechists should be able to get all the information you have sent so far. Please proceed with the lessons per the instructions.

I have children in different grades, how do I teach them all?

The family catechesis curriculum we are using, Loyola's Christ Our Life series, is a spiral curriculum, which means all the children will be learning about the same concepts each week. Also, there is an online Parent Guide to help parents lead children from different grades through their material at the same time (to access the Parent Guide, go to archangelgabrielparish.org/children under "Resources for Parents"). Or if you prefer, you can work with each child separately. Do whichever method works best for your family!

Do both parents need to participate in the live virtual sessions?

Whichever parents are going to be teaching their children at home need to participate so they are properly equipped. So, if both are teaching the lessons, then both need to participate. If only one parent is teaching the lessons, then only that parent needs to participate. However, both parents are certainly invited and are most welcome to participate in all the sessions, regardless of who is teaching.

Is there an absence policy for Family Catechesis?

Since there are only eight (8) sessions per section, it is critical that parents participate in each one. If a parent misses a session, they will not receive the tools necessary to properly teach their children the lessons for that unit. Therefore, the expectation is that parents attend all eight (8) of the sessions for their section.

If we miss the session for which we registered, can we attend a different session as a "make-up."

No. Families may only attend the session for which they are registered. The reason for this is because a crucial component of Family Catechesis is the parents' small group discussion. For this discussion to be fruitful, it is important that the small group has the same participants each week, and not new people popping in and out.

So, what do we do if we miss due to illness or some other very serious reason?

If you miss due to illness, emergency, or some other very serious reason, then email Steven Swank at sswank@archangelgabrielparish.com for information about "making-up" the session.

How will Sacrament (First Penance, First Holy Communion, Confirmation) preparation take place this year?

Sacrament prep will take place outside of faith formation this year. Sessions will be held for each sacrament and will be offered virtually if necessary. To receive the sacrament at Archangel Gabriel Parish, a child must participate in sacrament preparation AND regular religious instruction (either Faith Formation Ministry or Archangel Gabriel Catholic School). More information will be announced in the near future.
