

XVIII PARENT MEETINGS AND CALLS WITH TEACHERS AND/OR PRINCIPAL

Since the first obligation of the principal and teachers is to students during the day, parents must have an appointment to meet with the principal and/or teachers at a mutually agreeable time. School policy is that parents speak with teachers first regarding student issues before calling the principal. Telephone calls will be returned promptly within twenty-four hours when teachers have no classes to instruct.