

Police Holy Name Society of Suffolk County

Post Office Box 1573
Smithtown, NY 11787
PHNSofSC@scpdholyname.org
www.scpdholyname.org

HONESTY - INTEGRITY - COURAGE

Robert Lehmann
President

Date: _____

John Sheehan
1st Vice President

To Whom It May Concern:

Peter J. Knudsen
2nd Vice President

This letter will certify that the undersigned requester is a member in good standing of the Police Holy Name Society of Suffolk County, NY, hereafter described as the PHNS of SC.

Audrey Santanello
Treasurer

The PHNS of SC is a Catholic religious society whose membership is comprised of law enforcement professionals, both active and retired, whose jurisdiction is within the County of Suffolk, NY. The PHNS of SC derives its authority as a Catholic religious society from his Excellency the Bishop of Rockville Centre, NY. The PHNS of SC is governed by approved and published documents known as our Constitution and Bylaws, as well as the Holy Name Society pledge which clearly states the beliefs of the Society and a member's adherence to its values. The PHNS of SC is a member of the Diocese of Rockville Centre, NY Diocesan Union and the National Association of Holy Name Society, (NAHNS).

James Rhoads
Corresponding Secretary

Jennifer Elflein
Recording Secretary

Craig P. Knudsen
Sgt. At Arms

Membership in the PHNS of SC is completely voluntary and elective. By deciding to join the PHNS of NY a member is clearly stating their Catholic faith and religious beliefs. Members make a conscious decision to further their growth and understanding as a practicing Catholic in their faith and deeply held convictions.

Steven Webber
Sgt. At Arms

* * *

Rev. Henry W. Reid
Chaplain

The decision to request a religious exemption, we believe, is a personal matter of conscience and faith. Therefore this letter may be used by the undersigned requester to attest to their Catholic faith in requesting a religious exemption to any Covid vaccine mandate.

Rev. Dennis A. Suglia
Chaplain

In His Name,

* * *

Rev. Bruce J. Powers
Chaplain Emeritus

Robert Lehmann, President

Requester