Fiesta Franciscana Event

Secular Franciscans

The Franciscans have been in San Antonio, Texas, for many years, but until recently the three Orders [First, Second, and Third] have had little opportunity for interaction. In 2011, Father Jack Robinson, OFM, invited representatives from each group [whom he called "instigators"] to meet, and Fiesta Franciscana was born. In the six years since, Franciscans have gathered to listen to well-known speakers.

Among them were: Brother William Short, OFM; Sister Margaret Carney, OSF; Father Richard Rohr, OFM; Delia Banchs, OFS Father Pat McCloskey, OFM; and Father Joe Chinnici, OFM.

We have since included other gatherings such as Art and Music events and Movie Nights.

The Fiesta Franciscana creates the environment for socializing, and getting to know each other.

Secular Franciscans and Friars

You are most welcome to join us, even if you aren't a Franciscan, to hear this year's speaker Father Wayne Hellmann, OFM Conv., enjoy delicious barbecue, and visit beautiful Mission San Jose y San Miguel.
