

SAFE ENVIRONMENT PROGRAM PROTOCOL

Revised January 2021

TRAINING PROTOCOL FOR CLERGY, RELIGIOUS, DEACONS, EMPLOYEES AND VOLUNTEERS WHO PROVIDE DIRECT SERVICES TO OR HAVE UNSUPERVISED CONTACT WITH CHILDREN

As mandated or ethical reporters of child abuse, all clergy, religious, deacons, employees, and volunteers, before working unsupervised with children, will be required to complete the following:

- Complete the Live Scan fingerprinting and background check through the Department of Justice and FBI and receive a clearance from the Safe Environment Training Manager's Office.
 - Per Bishop Myron J. Cotta, "undocumented" volunteers are not to be sent to be Live Scanned. They must complete the online training course, "Protecting God's Children", but may only work or volunteer alongside someone who has completed all Safe Environment training protocol. They are not able to work with children alone.
- Complete the VIRTUS online training course "Protecting God's Children" and present a certificate of completion to the parish Safe Environment Coordinator. This online training must be updated every 3 years.
 - Included in the online training is a condensed version of the Diocese of Stockton's Code of Pastoral Conduce and Standards of Conduct for Those Working with Children and Young People, which needs to be reviewed before being able to complete the course.
 - All policies, procedures and Codes of Conduct are outlined in detail on the Diocesan website.
- All Clergy is required to read and sign the Pastoral Code of Conduct as well as the Diocese of Stockton's Standards of Conduct
- All volunteers should read and sign the Pastoral Code of Conduct as well as the Diocese of Stockton's Standards of Conduct
 - A copy of the signed forms will be kept in the locations' safe environment file and the personnel file.
