SAINT MARTIN OF TOURS
CATHOLIC COMMUNITY
FORT BELVOIR, VA

November 17, 2019
33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Join us for dinner and fun:
Saturday, 23 November 2019

6:15pm – immediately after the Vigil Mass at Woodlawn Chapel

We will be playing 10 games of BINGO, and all the prizes will be ... frozen Thanksgiving turkeys!

We will also be enjoying a pizza dinner.

All families will receive a beautiful Advent Calendar to prepare for the Christmas Holiday.

This is a free fellowship event. All members of the Catholic Community are welcome to attend. For more information, please contact Louise Oliver, Catholic Coordinator, at 703-806-5745 or FBCCInfo@gmail.com.

Rehearsal Today for Youth Christmas Eve Pageant
Sunday, 17 Nov at 12:15 at the REC

We need children/youth to play:
Mary, Joseph, shepherds, angels, and wise men.

Please see Sr. Michael for more information.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS
FALL HARVEST FOOD DRIVE

The Knights will be distributing blue canvas shopping bags after each Mass today to support the Catholic Charities Annual Fall Harvest Food Drive.
Please take a bag and a list of essential non-perishable food items in high demand, fill the bag with one or more of each food item on the list, & return the bags on Nov 23–24. A collection van will be in the parking lot.

Merry Christmas to All

Beginning this weekend,
the St. Martin of Tours Catholic Community will conduct its Keep Christ in Christmas Program.

Christmas cards in English and other languages, as well as other Christmas-themed items, will be available free of charge following all weekend Masses. The Fort Belvoir Knights of Columbus will assist in this event.

Remembrance Book

During the month of November, we will be remembering in prayer all of those who have passed away before us.
Prior to Mass, you are invited to write the names of your deceased loved ones in a book of remembrance that will be brought up to the altar with gifts during this time.

Community Advent Penance Service
