The Baptism of the Lord

Catholic Women of the Chapel

Wednesday, January 15, 2020

Join us for our special program featuring guest speaker Mary Lenaburg, author Be Brave in the Scared: How I Learned to Trust God During My Most Difficult Days. She will be talking about Christian Sisterhood. All are invited to this special event.

Wednesday, January 22, 2020

Join us as we begin our new faith study:

Catholicism: The Pivotal Players, a study by Bishop Barron.

Morning meetings are held every Wednesday at 9:30am at Woodlawn Chapel. Free onsite childcare is provided with reservation.

Feel welcome to join this diverse and dynamic group as they engage in faith study, guest speakers and community outreach programs.

For more information, please contact Linda at CWOCBelvoir@yahoo.com

THANK YOU!

Father Joseph Fleury and the Knights of Columbus Council #11170 thank you for your incredible display of generosity as shown by your profound demonstration of Faith in action which delivered:

- * (3) tons of food to the Arlington Diocese's Lucy Project, which included Christ House in Alexandria.
- * 172 winter coats and 489 other winter clothing items to ECHO (Ecumenical Community Helping Others) in Springfield.
- * More than 300 Angel ornaments and 65 Chapel ornaments (for families) were returned with toys and household items benefitting New Hope Housing in Alexandria.

May our Good Lord bless you for your most generous response to His teachings regarding the poor.
