Knights of Columbus
Exemplification Ceremony Open to Public
Saturday, 14 March 20 at 1800
Woodlawn Chapel

The Ft Belvoir Knights of Columbus Council invites all St. Martin of Tours Catholic faithful to come witness the first public presentation of the new Exemplification of Charity, Unity, and Fraternity.

This initiation ceremony is now open to all family members, friends, and individuals wishing to see and hear the pledges we take when we commit ourselves to the service of God and His Kingdom. In the past, only men joining the order were allowed to witness the lessons on charity, unity and fraternity that we exemplify when men join our ranks of knighthood.

Become a member of your
Parish Council...we need you

The St. Martin of Tours Parish Council is an advisory group that helps guide the Catholic Community here at Fort Belvoir.

Presently, we have few members representing our Active Duty community. While we are grateful to our retired members – they keep our Catholic Community thriving! – we would like new voices. Without a priest onsite, it is even more important that the Council includes all voices. We hope that an active-duty member or spouse will step up to lead the Parish Council as President.

Membership in the Parish Council requires little time and effort, meeting only once a month for an hour. There is very little, if any, additional time required.

Please contact Louise, Catholic Coordinator, for more information. The next Parish Council meeting is Thursday, March 26, 2020, at 1900.

Holy Thursday – Washing of the Feet

During the Holy Thursday Mass (April 9 at 1730), the Celebrant will wash the feet of 12 Community Members. We are looking for 12 individuals who represent the diversity of our Community. Please contact the Catholic Coordinator to participate in this event.
