National March For Life 2021 29 January 2021

The protection of all of those who participate in the annual March, as well as the many law enforcement personnel and others who work tirelessly each year to ensure a safe and peaceful event, is a top priority of the March for Life. In light of the fact that we are in the midst of a pandemic which may be peaking, and in view of the heightened pressures that law enforcement officers and others are currently facing in and around the Capitol, this year's March for Life will look different.

The annual rally will take place virtually and we are asking all participants to stay home and to join the March virtually. We will invite a small group of pro-life leaders from across the country to march in Washington, DC this year. These leaders will represent pro-life Americans everywhere who, each in their own unique ways, work to make abortion unthinkable and build a culture where every human life is valued and protected.

Homily Notes

THE THIRD SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent and believe in the gospel... Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men. (Mark 1:14-20)

Each of us have received the call to follow Jesus and spread the good news of the Gospel. The call of God is offered to us daily. It is so much more than getting ready for heaven. The call is to share with others the good news of God's love and mercy being offered to each of us. "The daily choices (of our lives) are important; they either further confirm our life's path, or they take us away from it."

"For Christians, who have heard the invitation," "Come after me...; the daily choices either identify us as Jesus' followers, or they don't. If we spend our lives "going with the flow,"; never speaking a contrary word when an issue of fairness, or justice is raised; never taking a stand to defend a person wronged, or a cause we hold sacred; never risking love – then, step after step, we have pretty well decided to accept or ignore the call to be Jesus' followers." (Fr. Jude Siciliano, OP, First Impressions weekly reflections)

This week we are called to pray that the sanctity of human life would be respected, especially through the protection of children waiting for birth. We share the Gospel message through helping to promote and working for the protection of all created in the image of God. The movie Unplanned, relates how Christians were able to answer the call of Jesus, by sharing the gospel of life through respect for others, patience and prayer. These Christians faced challenges, but their persistence helped Abby Johnson to come to a conversion of heart and gave her the courage to leave her job and become a pro-life advocate.

May each of us be open to the call of Jesus this week and truly seek to be fishers of men and women, leading others to follow the grace, compassion and love which Jesus offers.

Fr. Mike

Fr. Michael Lindsay will be preparing ashes for Ash Wednesday. You can bring in your palms to Mass on the weekends or to the RSO Annex, Bldg 221, Mon-Thurs.
