The Adult Faith Formation team is presenting the movie version of the best-selling book “The Shack” by William P. Young. This allegorical story depicts a man’s interaction with God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit as well as the Trinity’s interaction with him.

Can any movie depict the Trinity? Why do bad things happen to good people? “The Shack” is essentially an exploration of the challenge of evil, experienced not in the abstract, but as a faith crisis. It could be called a response to disappointment with God and disillusionment with religion. However, the reassuring message is that despite all the suffering and evil in the world, God really is good, all-powerful and loves us very much.

Hold onto your hat if you have any preconceived notion or pictures in your head of how the Almighty Father, his only Son Jesus, and the Holy Spirit look! If you’ve never read the book, you are in for a somewhat unsettling, but moving surprise. “The Shack” is a movie of healing and growth in the knowledge of God’s love for each person.

Please join us on Wednesday evening, September 13 at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Center Conference Room.
