Level One Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Formation: Part 2: June 21-26, 2021

About the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Formation Course

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is a Montessori based approach to children's religious formation. It was developed over 60 years ago by Sofia Cavalletti and Gianna Gobbi, and its methods are grounded in the Catholic tradition of Scripture and Liturgy.

Level One-Part Two Formation Course Objectives

- ❖ To present the methodology and the guiding principles of the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, as it especially pertains to the 3 to 6 year old child
- ❖ To explore the religious nature and the most vital religious needs of the 3 to 6 year old child
- ❖ To meditate on the biblical and liturgical themes presented to the 3 to 6 year old child in the first year of the CGS program
- ❖ To offer guidelines and assistance in preparing the Level I atrium environment and in making the catechist's album and catechetical materials for the first year of the CGS program

Meet our Formation Leader

Sue Jett began implementing the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd while teaching at St. Peter's Catholic School in Beaufort, SC in 2003. Her work in the CGS led her to further theological study, and she earned a Master of Arts in Pastoral Studies with a discipline in the CGS at Aquinas Institute of Theology in 2010.

Since she left Beaufort in 2009, Sue has worked as a Director of Religious Education at Catholic parishes in Milwaukee, Chicago, and NW Indiana. She is currently developing the CGS at St. John the Evangelist Church and School in St. John, IN.

Sue and her husband, Chuck, have been married for 36 years and resides close to family in NW Indiana. They have two children and four grandchildren.

Sue looks forward to sharing the gift of Catechesis of the Good Shepherd with those who have been called to this formation course – for truly, "it is in giving that we receive."
