From the Desk of Fr. Mark Arnzen, Pastor…

“All they asked was that we should continue to remember the poor, the very thing I had been eager to do all along.” (Gal 2:10)

This mandate from the first disciples was clear and important in our understanding of the mission of the Catholic Church. We are not to be a church that looks inward; rather we are to be a church in mission looking towards others in serving all people. Each year we look outwards in mission in many important ways. Two closest to our hearts are the Huautla Water Project and Awaso Hope Foundation in Ghana Africa.

Desde el Escritorio del Padre Mark Arnzen, Párroco…

“Solamente nos invitaron a tener presente la pobreza de los hermanos de Jerusalén, lo cual he tenido cuidado en cumplir.” (Gal 2:10)

Este mandato de los primeros discípulos fue claro y importante en nuestra comprensión de la misión de la Iglesia Católica. No estamos para ser una iglesia que mira hacia adentro; más bien debemos de ser una iglesia con una misión que mira hacia a los demás en el servicio a todas las personas.

Cada año miramos hacia el exterior en la misión de muchas maneras importantes. Dos que están muy cercanos a nuestros corazones es la Misión de Agua en Huautla y el Proyecto Awaso Esperanza en Ghana, África.

8:15AM MASS INTENTIONS
STEWARDSHIP IN SCRIPTURE
by Deacon Rick

Today’s reading concludes the Gospel of Matthew by describing the commissioning of the disciples: Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.” Powerful words spoken to enable the eleven apostles to carry out the message of Jesus, the Good News to the entire known world. This baptism was to join the new believers into an intimate relationship with God who is described in words we call the Trinity. The theological aspect of the Trinitarian nature of God commands our focus. But two other points deserve attention, the universality of the call and the abiding presence of the risen Lord. We, the descendants in faith of those eleven, are called in the same way to this mission which knows no bounds or limits as to who is welcome to hear it. We best represent the commandment of Jesus to “love one another” when we stop limiting our care and respect to some subset of people. Our call is to share the Good News of Jesus Christ not in order to become objectively successful in drawing in “deserving” non-believers. No, we labor, as did the eleven, in uncertainty and amazement at the power of love. It is not our own doing which brings others to faith … it is the power of the one who asks that we “behold” and know that He is with us, beyond our time… for all time.

GREEN TIP OF THE WEEK

Think of our landfills as the acne on the face of our planet. The EPA suggests that 75% of the 4.5 lbs of waste the average person generates per day could be recycled. Recycle and reuse.

FROM THE DESK OF FR. MARK
CONTINUED......

This week Fr. Paul Mensah will come to us to share the good news about God’s work in helping the children of Awaso experience new hope through education and spiritual growth.

“Brothers and sisters, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead.” (Phil 3:13)

My short time visiting Fr. Paul in Ghana with our mission group from St. Catherine Parish was a great blessing. We, in the word of St. Paul, continue to look toward the kingdom in the sharing of our time, talent and treasure. As we welcome Fr. Paul, please come and join us in celebrating the good news at the Taste of Ghana dinner Saturday, June 13th.

God Bless,
Fr. Mark Arnzen

In honor of Father Mark Arnzen for his time and commitment at St. Catherine Church!

Father Mark had a vision for our parish and on his first day as Pastor he began diligently serving our community. We have worked collectively to create a vibrant community which would include; a pastor and parishioners who work together because they both love their church and want to make it be the best parish it could possibly ever be. It was apparent Father Mark loved both the people of the parish and the community he served. He was always present for us, our children, youth, the poor and all the people of St. Catherine. We have been blessed!

Many have asked what are we doing to honor him, we are setting up a “Pastor’s Fund.” The monies raised will be used to enhance our liturgies, the first gift purchased in his honor will be a piano. Father Mark has wanted this for some time and it was part of his plan; although he won’t be here to celebrate our liturgies with us in the future, he will always be with us in spirit.

Won’t you please join me in making a gift in honor of Father Mark Arnzen for his humble service to St. Catherine Church and our community! A goal of $40,000 has been set and we already have begun the work in achieving our goal. Any and every gift is a blessing and greatly appreciated, please prayerfully consider what gift you or your family can possibly make. There is no gift too large or too small and all gift of prayers for our success are welcomed and accepted graciously.

You can make an online gift on our website or for gift forms, they are available in the vestibule on your way out of church.

For more information, please contact Anna Quinones at aquinones@dsj.org or 408.779.3959.

LITURGY WORSHIP

REFLECTION:
At the Last Supper Jesus left us a permanent sign of his loving presence. Jesus at the Last Supper, today’s Gospel, Mk. 14:12-16, 22-26, gives his disciples his Body and Blood to eat and drink as the permanent and effective sign of the new covenant. This is to fulfill the Scriptures as we hear in the first reading, Ex. 24:3-8, telling us that as the old covenant was sealed by the blood of animals, so the new covenant is sealed by the Blood of Christ, second reading, Heb. 9:11-15. Thus, as we eat his Body and drink his Blood we are united with the saving act of his death and resurrection.

CORPUS CHRISTI:
Today we celebrate the feast of Corpus Christi, the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ present in the Eucharist. At the Last Supper Jesus left us a permanent sign of his loving presence in the Eucharist, which was recorded by the Gospel writers (Matthew, Mark, Luke and John) and St. Paul: “This is my Body/Blood....Do this in memory of me” (1 Cor. 11:23-27). Through this sacred gift of love God draws us into his divine life and offers us food for our earthly pilgrimage to continue with faith, hope and charity, confident in God’s ability to transform our weaknesses and sufferings into life and joy.

We are the Body of Christ, the Church. Every time we gather together celebrating the Eucharist, we proclaim that we are the Body of Christ at the Eucharistic Table, and at other ministries or activities, such as, Social Ministry or Pastoral Ministry.

SUMMER: As we begin the summer months I want to call your attention to our summer daily Mass. We hold our daily Mass, besides the weekend Masses, Monday through Saturday at 8:15am. If you are planning a “stay home vacation” this summer, daily Mass is a wonderful and blessed way to start your day.

No hermanos, yo no pretendo haberlo conseguido todavía. Digo solamente esto: olvidando lo que dejé atrás, me lanzo hacia adelante. (Fil 3:13)

Mi corto tiempo visitando a Padre Pablo en Ghana con nuestro grupo misionero de la parroquia de Santa Catalina fue una gran bendición. Women of the Old Testament: Rebecca Rebecca (or Rebekah) is the second matriarch (Genesis 24-27) of the people of God. Abraham sends his servant back to his homeland to find a wife for Isaac. The servant meets Rebecca at a well, where she is happy to draw water for him and for his camels. Then she invites him to stay the night at her father’s house. There the servant learns that Rebecca’s father is a kinsman of Abraham, and he agrees to let her go back to become Isaac’s wife. Like her mother-in-law Sarah, Rebecca is at first unable to have children, but after Isaac prays to the LORD on her behalf, she becomes pregnant with twins. The twins jostle each other so much in the womb that Rebecca prays to the LORD for help, and he tells her that the twins are like nations quarreling, and that “the older shall serve the younger.” When the twins, Esau and Jacob, are born, Isaac prefers Esau, the hunter, while Rebecca prefers the younger Jacob, who “kept to his tents.”

When Isaac was old, with failing eyesight, he called his older son Esau to him and told him to go and hunt some game to make some tasty food for him, and then Isaac would give Esau a special blessing before he (Isaac) died. Rebecca overheard this instruction, and told the younger son, Jacob, to go and bring in two goats, and she would prepare food for Isaac which Jacob would take to him, pretending to be his brother. Jacob at first objects, noting that his father will realize that he is not Esau, because Esau is hairy, while Jacob is smooth-skinned. But Rebecca has an answer for that as well, and dresses Jacob in Esau’s clothes, and covers his hands and neck with animal skins. So Jacob receives Isaac’s solemn deathbed blessing.

Although Rebecca aids and abets her son Jacob in tricking his father and doing his older brother out of his rightful place, she does it because of her belief in the LORD’s promise that her younger son would surpass his older brother, and that “the older shall serve the younger.” She chose to act as she did for reasons that she believed were honorable and right.

Father’s Day Spiritual Bouquet
The best Father's Day gift: A spiritual bouquet
Father’s Day Spiritual Bouquet envelopes are available on the tables around the inside of the Church. These envelopes are wonderful for remembering fathers everywhere – living or deceased. It is a great opportunity to have them remembered during Mass in our Church on Father’s Day. Please drop the completed return envelope in the collection basket TODAY or take it to the Parish office before our Mother's Day mass on Sunday, June 14th. You may pick up a spiritual bouquet Father’s Day card, available at the parish rectory, and send it to your Father. There is no better gift that can be given than the gift of prayers. Your donation is appreciated. Please contact Anna Quinones at aquinones@jsd.j.org for more information.
NEWS FROM THE GHANA TEAM

I personally am deeply grateful for the privilege of visiting Ghana, not as a tourist, but as an observer and participant in the formation of community for the purpose of education of the young, and sharing of our faith. Attending church service in Ghana is a unique and spiritually enriching experience. The members of our church in Awaso are alive to the feeling of rejoicing in the presence of the Lord among us in a way that can leave none of us unmoved. Their love of the Lord, and with that love, their enthusiasm, friendliness, music, and movement conveys a real acceptance of us as participating, albeit temporary, members of the worship service and community. Our 2014 crew benefitted from ethnic diversity, which I have no doubt is a real asset in an accurate depiction of what it means to be an American. One sees that there are numerous obstacles to progress and the path to success is fraught with difficulties. The everyday details of existence in Ghana differ greatly from our own. It is important for us to experience this, at least in a small way, to appreciate that things may not always be accomplished “our way” and why that is so. In the end, there is no right or wrong way to educate if the purpose is accomplished in a way that meets the goal of an educated, informed youth and populace, which can promote the general success and well being of both. Fr Paul is to be commended not only for his dedication to the school, but also for his genius in bridging the cultural divide between Awaso and the communities which provide some of its support. These mission trips make this amalgamation possible, through the exertions of Fr Paul and his local "support sisters" of Janet Leach and Monica McClintock. I cannot thank them sufficiently for their efforts to make this pilgrimage possible, and am inspired by the obvious joy they experience in introducing us to the community they have come to know and love over the course of many trips. And lastly it was a great blessing to have Fr. Mark Arnzen as our spiritual guide on this mission. His special relationship with Fr Paul, and now with the people of Awaso, was a joy to behold, and his presence was a both a comfort and an inspiration to his fellow parishioners.

Summer Programs
July 6-23, 2015

Math Camp—July 6-23, 9:00 am-12:00 noon
Mondays through Thursdays, for students entering grades 1-8. Grades are clustered into three groups: 1-3, 4-6, and 7-8. Instruction is tailored to the specific needs of the students in the class, while also emphasizing the development of number sense, basic facts and real world applications as appropriate for each grade level. Students use technology, hands on learning, collaboration, projects and pen and pencil activities to deepen their understanding of mathematics, with lots of fun thrown in for good math measure. This program meets the needs of those students who are recommended or required to do additional work in math this summer.

Coding Camp—July 20-23, 1:00-4:30 for students entering grades 5-8. Students learn basic coding and develop a computer game. More advanced students develop their own computer games with support.

Kinder Program—July 7-23, 9:00am-11:00am
Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays
The program supports a smooth transition for students entering kindergarten next fall. The following concepts are addressed through small group work and hands-on activities: Phonemic Awareness, Number and Letter Recognition, Letter/Sound Correspondence, and Fine Motor Skills. We also address the social and developmental needs of the students as they prepare to begin their academic journey.

Extended Care—Care is offered from 7:30-9:00am and 12:00-6:00pm on program days for students participating in the above programs.

Outgoing Student Council members were thanked and new officers were installed at a prayer service in late May.
