From the Desk of Fr. Mark Arnzen, Pastor…

For many families in the parish summer has started as schools have completed their academic year, graduations have occurred and college students have returned from the rigors of university life. The season summer for others indicates the warming of the days and the family activities that seem to occur more often during this time. This summer, for Fr. Andrey and me, it brings a change and a move to new parishes, as it does for Msgr. Jeronimo and Fr. Allen who come to join you at St. Catherine, as we all, in obedience to God, continue our service in new communities.

Each priest, during the celebration of the Sacrament of Holy Orders, places his ……

Desde el Escritorio del Padre Mark Arnzen, Párroco…

Para muchas familias de la parroquia el verano ha comenzado y las escuelas han completado su curso académico, graduaciones han ocurrido y estudiantes universitarios han regresado de los rigores de la vida universitaria. La temporada de verano para los demás indica que el calentamiento de los días y las actividades familiares parecen ocurrir con más frecuencia durante este tiempo. Este verano trae para el Padre Andrey y yo, un cambio y un movimiento a nuevas parroquias, como lo hace para Mons. Jerónimo y el Padre Allen que vienen a unirse a usted en Santa Catalina, como todos, en obediencia a Dios, continuamos nuestro servicio en las nuevas comunidades.

ELEVENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

STEWARDSHIP IN SCRIPTURE
by Deacon Rick

Jesus often speaks in parables as in today’s Gospel reading. Parables illustrate an underlying meaning by use of an easily understood story. We have the benefit of the passage of time to help us understand what Jesus is telling us. Sometimes it is stated explicitly, “To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed…” We see that for believers the kingdom of God grows to be more and more important in our lives as we journey with Jesus. At other times the illustration is less direct, even to the point that “you will hear and not understand.” This tells us that an open heart and mind are needed to take in Jesus’ intended meaning. We also must remember that Jesus’ talk of a “kingdom” would have been sedition to the Romans (so we know that today’s parable is addressed to an audience of disciples and those interested in becoming disciples).

In familiar parables, such as that of the sower, we risk thinking that we’ve heard that before and miss the opportunity to reflect on its meaning in our lives today. As we journey within and toward the kingdom, what kind of seed bed are we? In truth we probably are sometimes rocky or shallow ground but by reflecting on that truth we are led to become more receptive, richer soil. Parables are memorable because of their stories and so give us food for reflection.

Take time to read Mark 4:1-34 and celebrate the gift of hearing Jesus speak to us, leading us to the kingdom...

GREEN TIP OF THE WEEK

Summer is coming, school is almost out. As we travel by car, try reducing your driving speed by 5 mph. Not only will you save the environment but you’ll save money too.

HAVE YOU MOVED?

Have you moved recently and need to update your mailing information with the parish? Email us at office@stca.org, drop us a note in the Sunday collection or call us at (408) 779-3959. We need your complete name, old & new address and your new telephone number if that has changed. Don’t miss out on all the great news we mail/email to our parishioners!

FROM THE DESK OF FR. MARK

hands between those of the Bishop and promises obedience to him and his successors. It is a promise that is fulfilled as we carry out our daily ministry in the parish in service of God’s holy people.

Each transition is difficult and hard; both for the priest and the people that have been called to serve. Our Bishop Patrick, in his letter to the priests on Holy Thursday this year reminds us of the priestly call that we encounter in our journey of faith. He writes, “The number of your years of priestly life, both individually and collectively, are a wonderful testimony to the daily renewal, your sharing with the fiat of Mary, the Mother of the Lord…Wherever we are along our journey, we know that the Lord who called us will always sustain us in his love.” He continues with this challenge to go, “beyond the confines of rectory and church to invite those “on the highways and byways” to meet and encounter the same Lord who is at the core of all that we are, all that we do. This is the purpose of our consecration and our anointing: to bind up the broken hearted, proclaim liberty and comfort those who mourn. Indeed, it is for this that the One Who was sent has sent us!”

We cannot do this alone, it is in this that your support of our parish community continues to inspire Fr. Andrey, Fr. Lieu and me and all the priests who serve God’s holy Church. As we continue our goodbyes, be assured of our prayers and please pray for us.

God Bless,
Fr. Mark

Honoring our Pastor
Father Mark Arnzen

In honor of Father Mark Arnzen for his time and commitment at St. Catherine Church!

Father Mark had a vision for our parish and on his first day as Pastor he began diligently serving our community. We have worked collectively to create a vibrant community which would include; a pastor and parishioners who work together because they both love their church and want to make it be the best parish it could possibly ever be. It was apparent Father Mark loved both the people of the parish and the community he served. He was always present for us, our children, youth, the poor and all the people of St. Catherine. We have been blessed!

Many have asked what are we doing to honor him, we are setting up a “Pastor’s Fund.” The monies raised will be used to enhance our liturgies, the first gift purchased in his honor will be a piano. Father Mark has wanted this for some time and it was part of his plan; although he won’t be here to celebrate our liturgies with us in the future, he will always be with us in spirit.

Won’t you please join me in making a gift in honor of Father Mark Arnzen for his humble service to St. Catherine Church and our community! A goal of $40,000 has been set and we already have begun the work in achieving our goal. Any and every gift is a blessing and greatly appreciated, please prayerfully consider what gift you or your family can possibly make. There is no gift too large or too small and all gift of prayers for our success are welcomed and accepted graciously.

You can make an online gift on our website or for gift forms, they are available in the vestibule on your way out of church.

For more information, please contact Anna Quinones at aquinones@dsj.org or 408.779.3959.

LITURGY WORSHIP

REFLECTION: As a tree grows from a seed so the Kingdom of God can grow from a small, silent beginning until it can encompass and shelter the world. The prophet Ezekiel in the first reading, Ez. 17:22-24, looks forward to a time when the kingdom of Israel after the exile becomes strong again from a lowly branch, providing home and safety to its people; this prophecy is a foreshadowing of Christ’s Kingdom. Then St. Mark in today’s Gospel, Mk. 4:26-34, tells us that Christ’s Kingdom grows from the smallest seed because of the hidden power of the Word of God. Thus, St. Paul in the second reading, 2 Cor. 5:6-10, invites us to seek the ultimate happiness in Christ’s Kingdom which is to be united with Christ, and to please Christ in all things.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION: The reign of God comes about because people commit to reversing their lives completely, to embracing new visions, new values. Many popular television shows exploit an unattractive side of human nature by pitting contestants against one another, even to the point of performing dangerous stunts or devious schemes, to gain money or favor.

At the liturgy, we counter that impulse by committing ourselves to live generously. In response to Christ’s total gift, we offer bread and wine as the emblems of our lives, our hopes, our joys and sorrows. The bread and wine carried to the Altar contain our lives, and by offering our lives to God, we prepare to receive the gift of God’s own life. We are to become what we receive: the Body of Christ.

On Sundays, this self-giving is often accompanied by a collection and procession of gifts for the poor and money for the upkeep of the parish. There are certainly other methods of collecting money, some perhaps more efficient. Yet the act of giving from our abundance, and attending to the needs of the poor, opens us up to participation in the changes the Reign of God requires.

DIVINO PROTOCOLO
ES BUENO: traer a los niños a Misa, aunque sean pequeños y armen un poco de ruido... Ese “ruido” hace sonreír a los ángeles y a Dios.
NO ES BUENO: permanecer indiferente y mirar hacia otro lado cuando tu niño, en lugar de “ruido”, hace un berrinche que le lleva a gritar hasta hacer temblar las vidrieras de la iglesia. En ese caso, no pasa nada por sacarlo un momento afuera, calmarlo... Y volver a entrar.

THANKS TO ALL WHO CAME OUT FOR THE MUSIC NIGHT ON THURSDAY

If you weren’t around, we had the first of three music nights last Thursday. It featured an amazing live band—Undercover, delicious food trucks, drinks, and just good community fun. And what was the main point of this? To get together as a community. Community is SO important. So thank you to all who came, we hope you had a great time. And we hope for the next one in July, you invite some more friends to come enjoy. Our community is something to be celebrated!

Which leads me to my next point...

GET INVOLVED

I know I’ve said it before, but it’s definitely worth saying again: Get involved. If you’re not involved in one ongoing ministry here at the parish, you need to be. And it’s not just for the church’s sake—it’s for your sake as well. I grew up at this parish. I went to Mass every week, went through Catechism and Confirmation and all that. I had faith. But I didn’t feel connected. It wasn’t until I got involved in youth ministry that I started feeling connected. I started to feel like I was part of a community. And you know what that did? That brought the Mass to life. It made me look forward to Sunday evenings. They became unequivocally the highlight of my week. And it’s all because I got involved and got to know my fellow parishioners. I was, as John Rinaldo put it last week, surrounding myself with excellence.

So get involved. Find a ministry that you find joy in. It doesn’t take a huge amount of your time, but it will bring you so much joy.
THANK YOU to our coordinators, catechists and volunteers for your time and talent this 2014-15 year!

You are AMAZING!

We would especially like to thank Signe Monto-sa, Children’s Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) Coor-dinator, Kristin Harmon, CLOW Catechist, and Teri Bradford, Sacramental Preparation Cate-chist for your dedication to sharing our faith with the children and youth! We will miss you!

TOP 5 REASONS TO BECOME A CATECHIST

5. Your own faith will come alive as you prepare the sessions, teach the children and youth and share your own faith stories.

4. You will witness God’s amazing grace through the “ah-ha” moments of understanding in class.

3. You will be challenged and have fun.

2. You will play an active part in supporting parents as the primary educators of faith.

1. You will put your faith into action: "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations."

It’s an amazing and exciting opportunity to help strengthen the faith of our children, teens and adults in our community. Volunteer to teach once a month, once a week, or even help with office support.

If you would like to know more about our volunteer catechist opportunities, please call Rose at (408) 779-9604 or by e-mail at rosepm@dsj.org.

DONATE YOUR CLEAN, USED TOWELS!

If you (or a friend or relative) are planning a clean out and have some old towels or smaller blankets, please consider donating them to this year’s Vacation Bi-ble School for one of their service projects the week of June 22-26.

Towels will be donated to our local animal shelters to wrap “new arrivals”, make cozy beds, and dry animals off after baths or in the vet clinics. Dona-tions can be dropped off in the Rectory or Family Faith Formation office.

Father's Day Spiritual Bouquet
The best Father's Day gift: A spiritual bouquet
Father’s Day Spiritual Bouquet envelopes are available on the tables around the inside of the Church. These envelopes are wonderful for remembering fathers everywhere – living or deceased. It is a great opportunity to have them remembered during Mass in our Church on Father’s Day.
Please drop the completed return envelope in the collection basket TODAY or take it to the Parish office before our Mother’s day mass on Sunday, June 14th.
You may pick up a spiritual bouquet Father’s day card, available at the parish rectory, and send it to your Father. There is no better gift that can be given than the gift of prayers. Your donation is appreciated. Please contact Anna Quinones at aquinones@dsj.org for more information.

Summer Update

The school year may be over for the women and children of the Learning and Loving Education Center, Morgan Hill, but Director Christa Hanson has devised a plan to keep them connected during the summer break.

On three Tuesdays this summer, June 16, July 14 and August 11, the women and school-aged children are encouraged to return to make use of the lending library, checking out books to keep themselves—and their children—reading during the summer.

The Sharing Room will also be open so that any of the items can be taken, free of charge to the enrolled women. And Loaves and Fishes will be present to provide breakfast for the women and children visiting.

The Learning and Loving Education Center is a non-profit educational project of the Sisters of the Presentation.
