STEWARDSHIP IN SCRIPTURE
by Deacon Rick Haeckel

The apostles ask Jesus "Increase our faith." On its face, that seems like a simple request. But Jesus' response tells them, and us, that faith isn't measured as if it were some reward for right living. Faith is a gift from God which invites us to the realization that we are intimately connected with God ... Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Faith is that ephemeral essence that lies at the very core of our being. It is so integrated within us that we have difficulty, as did the Apostles, in identifying it. Their question implies that faith somehow has a quantifiable measurement, that it can be increased implies that it can be decreased or, as popular jargon sometimes expresses, even lost. It is in our nature to measure things, to rank them in terms of amount. But faith isn't so easily contained by such means. Faith is intrinsic, an essential part of what we are as a child of God. We are left wanting in trying to describe faith in human terms. But we can recognize it in the behavior of people who example Jesus' fundamental call to love. It undergirds our "faith" journey. Again, in human terms, we speak of "growing in faith" in much the same manner as the apostles did. The parallel with human growth in body and mind provide the basis for viewing faith in a similar way. Let's face it, we're human and we need touchstones to guide us on our journey. Perhaps the most enduring difference between faith and human growth is its permanence. We all have God's gift of faith, how we express that truth varies widely. The faith of some is universally recognized, like the Saints, while others have never understood or believed that God's gift resides in them. Another meaning of the word faith can lead to confusion as well. We all have faith that the sun will rise each morning, dark clouds and thunder will bring rain; they are anticipation of things we are comfortable will occur. Personal faith, the presence of God's grace in us, isn't as easy to see or quantify. Jesus' responses to the apostles use one of his favorite teaching tools, exaggeration. By offering seemingly impossible or at least very unusual examples (uprooting trees and servant/master behavior) he invites his followers to reflect on the effect of the gift of faith. How does our faith undergird our choices? Jesus has told us that to love one another we are to love as God has loved us. Whew, that's a tall order, for God loves us unconditionally while we, on the other hand, are all too good at placing conditions on how and whom we will love. But, take heart, we may feel that we are measured on our success in loving but that's our mind's understanding. The God who made us gave us faith, now we are to share it, in love, with all.

GREEN TIP OF THE WEEK
By sharing (e.g. car-pooling etc.) we reduce the impact of independent use of resources. On a brighter note, a green action guaranteed to produce calm at low cost is to smile at others. Try it, just for grins :-).

FROM THE DESK OF
MSGR. FRANCISCO RIOS, PAROCHIAL VICAR....

"Lord increase our faith"

It is not the amount of faith that is important; It is the kind of faith that's important. I can say that I believe in God, but I don't have much time for him. I only go to God when I need him. And when he does not answer or answers no, do we keep our faith? Are we able to say your will be done? Just like when our parents say no. When God says no recall what St. Paul said: "for those who love God all things work out for the best". Faith doesn't always take away my worries or my anxieties, but it gives me something to hang on to. For a lot of people faith is nothing more than going to Mass on Sundays. Faith involves everything we do. The letter to the Hebrews says: "Faith is the realization of what we hope for and the evidence of things not seen" (Heb. 11,1) . In other words where there is no faith there is no hope. So faith gives us something to hang on to; it gives purpose and meaning to our life. It helps us not to give up when life is difficult and challenging. Faith is the firm foundation on which our life is built. Our faith has to be nourished by prayer, meditation, reading the Scriptures, studying our catechism of our catholic faith, hanging out with people of faith. But our faith has to be alive by love, and love in actions. "If I have faith to be able to move mountains but have no love I am nothing " (1Cor, 13)"show me your faith without deeds and I will show you my faith by my deeds"(James2,18)

Salmo — Señor, que no seamos sordos a tu voz (Salmo 95 [94]).

Evangelio — ¡Señor, aumentanos la fe! (Lucas 17:5-10).

DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL
MSGR. FRANCISCO RÍOS, VICARIO PARROQUIAL....

“No es la cantidad de fe lo que importante, si no la Calidad de la fe que es importante.
Yo puedo decir que creo en Dios, pero no tengo tiempo para El. Y solo me acerco a Él cuándo lo necesito. Pero cuando Dios no responde o responde no, como cuando nuestros padres nos dicen no.
¿Somos capaces de decir, que se haga tu voluntad?
Cuando Dios responde no, recordemos las palabras de San Pablo “todo coopera para el bien de los que aman a Dios”. La fe no siempre quita mis preocupaciones o mis ansiedades, pero siempre me da algo de donde sostenerme.
Para mucha gente la fe no es otra cosa que ir a Misa los domingos. La fe tiene que estar en todas las cosas que hacemos en nuestra vida. La Carta a los hebreos dice “La fe es la certeza de lo que se espera y la prueba de lo que no se ve” (Heb 11,1). En otras palabras, si no tenemos fe no hay esperanza. Por eso la fe en Dios nos da algo de donde sostenernos; le da sentido y propósito a nuestra vida. Nos ayuda a no bajar los brazos y mantenernos firmes en las dificultades de la vida. La fe es el semiento sobre el cual se edifica toda nuestra vida.
Nuestra fe tiene que ser alimentada, nutrita por la oración, la meditación, la lectura de las Sagradas Escrituras, el Estudio del catecismo, tener amigos con los que compartimos la fe.

OKTOBERFEST
En Múnich, Alemania, la celebración más grande es el Oktoberfest. La fecha de la celebración suele ser a finales de septiembre y hasta octubre. Es conocido como el Festival de la Cerveza Bávara. Dondequiera que haya alemanes y personas con mentalidad de festival, el Oktoberfest sucede. Nosotros, los Caballeros de Colón, hemos decidido celebrar nuestro segundo Oktoberfest anual en el Centro Parroquial O'Donnell de Santa Catalina, el 26 de octubre de 6:00pm a 10:00pm. Tenemos una banda de doce miembros para tocar Polkas alemanas, valses y más música. La comida consistirá en Wiener Schnitzel (estilo bávaro) Bratwurst, repollo azul alemán y ensalada de papa. Por favor, venga y únase a nosotros para una hora festiva. Las entradas estarán en ventas en BookSmart, Rosy's on the Beach y después de misa el 12/13 de octubre y el 19/20 de octubre. Si tiene preguntas, favor de llame a Carl Reinhardt al (408) 779-0699 ext. 224. El precio del boleto por adelantado es de $40 para adultos y $15 para niños (12 años o menos).
¿SOMOS CREYENTES?

Jesús les había repetido en diversas ocasiones: “¡Qué pequeña es vuestra fe!”. Los discípulos no protestan. Saben que tiene razón. Llevan bastante tiempo junto a él. Lo ven entregado totalmente al Proyecto de Dios; solo piensa en hacer el bien; solo vive para hacer la vida de todos más digna y más humana. ¿Lo podrán seguir hasta el final?

La crisis religiosa de nuestros días no respeta ni siquiera a los practicantes. Nosotros hablamos de creyentes y no creyentes, como si fueran dos grupos bien definidos: unos tienen fe, otros no. En realidad, no es así. Casi siempre, en el corazón humano hay, a la vez, un creyente y un no creyente. Por eso, también los que nos llamamos “cristianos” nos hemos de preguntar: ¿Somos realmente creyentes? ¿Quién es Dios para nosotros? ¿Lo amamos? ¿Es él quien dirige nuestra vida?

La fe puede debilitarse en nosotros sin que nunca nos haya asaltado una duda. Si no la cuidamos, puede irse diluyendo poco a poco en nuestro interior para quedar reducida sencillamente a una costumbre que no nos atrevemos a abandonar por si acaso. Distraídos por mil cosas, ya no acertamos a comunicarnos con Dios. Vivimos prácticamente sin él.

¿Qué podemos hacer? En realidad, no se necesitan grandes cosas. Es inútil que nos hagamos propósitos extraordinarios pues seguramente no los vamos a cumplir. Lo primero es rezar como aquel desconocido que un día se acercó a Jesús y le dijo: “Creo, Señor, pero ven en ayuda de mi incredulidad”. Es bueno repetirlas con corazón sencillo. Dios nos entiende. El despertará nuestra fe.

Lo importante es insistir hasta tener una primera experiencia, aunque sea pobre, aunque solo dure unos instantes. Si un día percibimos que no estamos solos en la vida, si captamos que somos amados por Dios sin merecerlo, todo cambiará. No importa que hayamos vivido olvidados de él. Creer en Dios, es, antes que nada, confiar en el amor que nos tiene.

LEARNING & LOVING CENTER
The Learning and Loving Education Center, Morgan Hill, is up and running for the new school year. Director Christa Hanson stated that, at its opening on August 26th, "the Center was as full as I can remember in the past seven years. Every class was filled to capacity, the preschool had at least 25 children attending, and we received at least ten huge donations of goods for our sharing room. The Center was alive with excitement and learning. That's the way we like it."

On Thursday, September 19th, our new Bishop of San Jose, Most Rev. Oscar Cantu, visited the Center. He enjoyed touring the Center, visiting the classrooms and the preschool and chatting informally with Board members and donors who came to meet the Bishop.

For more information about the Learning and Loving Education Center, visit our newly launched website at learningandloving.org

“Unplanned”
The Movie
Saturday, Oct. 19, at 7:00pm in the
O’Donnell Parish Center
Saint Catherine of Alexandria is hosting a FREE admission to the movie “Unplanned.” Unplanned is an inspiring true story of one woman’s journey of transformation; Planned Parenthood Director to pro-life activist. Her passion surrounding a woman’s right to choose even led her to become a spokesperson for Planned Parenthood, fighting to enact legislation for the cause in which she so deeply believed.

Until the day she saw something that changed everything, leading Abby Johnson to join her former enemies at 40 Days For Life and become one of the most ardent pro-life speakers in America.

Welcome! Our warmest welcome to all who celebrate with us, whether long-time residents or newly arrived in the parish. We thank God for you. If you are not registered, please fill out this form and place it in the collection basket or mail it to the parish office.
