Marriage Matters

If you were building a house, you would first take stock of your resources and determine how best to prioritize your efforts. This week, Jesus reminds us that our discipleship works in the same way.

If you are married, you live your discipleship out in the concrete circumstances of your marriage and family life. Prioritizing your marriage is not a “nice extra”, but rather, the way in which you prove your love for God. Sometimes that can mean sacrificing outside activities in order to be more intentional at home. Start with simple things:

- Home for dinner together as a family
- Screens off when you are with your spouse and children
- Pray with your spouse and children
- Hold your tongue on criticism and notice the positive
