MARRIAGE MATTERS

Have you ever been stretched beyond your comfort zone? In this weekend's first reading, Abraham physically leaves his comfort zone, while Peter, James and John are stretched intellectually and spiritually. Often these experiences are an invitation from God to grow deeper.

In Lent, it is easy to focus on our personal formation and forget we should also grow as a couple. This Lent, consider leaving your comfort zone through the following means:

- Learn and try a skill to help you communicate more effectively
- Begin praying together, or go deeper in your couple prayer
- Invite to dinner or brunch a couple you don't know well
- Attend a marriage formation event
- Consider serving together (perhaps mentoring the engaged!)

Any of these efforts will bear great fruit in your marriage, and in the Church!
