FINANCE SECRETARY
Barbara Chernesky

Dear Parishioners,

If you are a visual person like I am than I imagine today's Gospel passage is challenging to read. I have trouble getting past picturing a wooden beam in my eye. The splinter is bad enough, but a beam! Perhaps that was Jesus' intent for telling the parable. How do we get past that beam in our eye? How can we hope to see clearly with our vision obstructed in such a way? How can we consider another person's actions if we cannot see?

The Lenten season is a good time to consider performing surgery. Time to get that beam out of our eye, clear up our vision so that we can see clearly God acting in our lives, and in the lives of those we love.

Grace and Peace,

Fr. Tom

Sunday Readings

First Reading

Sirach 27:4-7

A reading from the Book of Sirach

When a sieve is shaken, the husks appear;
so do one's faults when one speaks.
As the test of what the potter molds is in the furnace,
so in tribulation is the test of the just.
The fruit of a tree shows the care it has had;
so too does one's speech disclose the bent of one's mind. Praise no one before he speaks, for it is then that people are tested.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

Second Reading      1 Corinthians 15:54-58

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and sisters:
When this which is corruptible clothes itself with incorruptibility
and this which is mortal clothes itself with immortality, then the word that is written shall come about:
*Death is swallowed up in victory.
Where, O death, is your victory?
Where, O death, is your sting?*
The sting of death is sin,
and the power of sin is the law.
But thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Therefore, my beloved brothers and sisters, be firm, steadfast, always fully devoted to the work of the Lord,
knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory

Shine like lights in the world as you hold on to the word of life.

Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory

Gospel

Luke 6:39-45

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Jesus told his disciples a parable,
"Can a blind person guide a blind person?
Will not both fall into a pit?
No disciple is superior to the teacher;
but when fully trained,
every disciple will be like his teacher.
Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye,
but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own?
How can you say to your brother,
'Brother, let me remove that splinter in your eye,' when you do not even notice the wooden beam in your own eye?
You hypocrite! Remove the wooden beam from your eye first;
then you will see clearly to remove the splinter in your brother's eye.

"A good tree does not bear rotten fruit,
nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit.
For every tree is known by its own fruit.
For people do not pick figs from thornbushes,
nor do they gather grapes from brambles.
A good person out of the store of goodness in his heart produces good,
but an evil person out of a store of evil produces evil;
for from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise be to You, Lord Jesus Christ.
