We need volunteers who would be willing to give an hour a week to letting our fellow parishioners that we have not forgotten them. We are also looking for a volunteer to coordinate the program. We will be scheduling a training program for lay home visitation ministers in the near future. All are invited to our next Parish Music Series event this Sunday, February 16 at 3:00 pm. The Austin Baroque Orchestra will presents music from the Manuscrit des Ursulines de la Nouvelle Orléans, the only surviving musical manuscript from colonial Louisiana. The MS has been in the possession of the Ursuline Sisters of New Orleans since 1754, and consists of sacred contrafacta of music by Lully, Couperin, Clérembault, Campra, Charpentier, and many others. Musical excerpts from the manuscript will be interspersed with readings from the sisters’ diaries, including accounts of their trip from Rouen to New Orleans in the 1720s, and some descriptions of life in New Orleans during the French colonial period. The concert is free and a reception will follow in the library.
"Our newly-developed parish education program for our children is off to a great start in answer to many prayers and sacrifices put forth to Almighty God and His holy saints for which we are immensely grateful. We thank as well our untiring band of dedicated catechists whose mission it is to glorify God and His Holy Catholic Church through the education and training of our youth. We have been entrusted and blessed with 98 children during our premier semester, and, God willing, look forward to continued growth as we prepare for our new Fall 2020/Spring 2021 classes. Please keep us all in your prayers!"

Inquiry Class
Classes meet on Sundays from 10:30AM -12PM in the Common Room (#201). These classes help those considering entering full communion with the Catholic Church (or returning to it) to understand what the Catholic Church teaches and why. We also invite practicing Catholics already in full communion as a way to brush up on their faith. If you or someone you know would benefit from these classes, please plan to attend, and encourage others to attend. Babysitting services are available during these sessions. Please contact Alan Becker by email alanmbecker@gmail.com or call/text 210-273-9426 if you have any questions.
