ARCHDIOCESE OF SANTA FE
OFFICE OF THE ARCHBISHOP

January 1, 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We begin 2021 with much hope and trust in our Lord's grace over this time in history. The 2021 Annual Catholic Appeal Foundation theme is "Love Your Neighbor." Most of us are familiar with Luke's Gospel and the parable of the Good Samaritan. Jesus teaches us that our neighbor is anyone, anywhere who is in need of help.

The story begins with the Greatest Commandment, as Jesus answers the question of a man as to how we receive eternal life. The man replies to Jesus that he knows we "must love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind and, you must love your neighbor as yourself." The man then asks, "who is my neighbor?"

As Jesus often did, he answered with a parable. The parable of the Good Samaritan. The story teaches us that our neighbor is anyone, anywhere who is in need of help. The answer does not mean the people physically next door or who live in one's own town. To love our neighbor is the virtue of showing charity. So then, to love our neighbor is to love God. To act with charity to others is the mission of all Christians - and the Church.

Your generosity to the ACA assists the Archdiocese of Santa Fe with its charitable impact Jesus asks of each of us. You participate in this charity with your giving. Each of our ministries is redesigning outreach to the neighbors amongst us beyond our church walls. The Coronavirus has permitted us to discover ways to evangelize and love through many remote access platforms.

Our youth are strengthened in their faith with on-line Socials, how-to videos to make a home holier, and leading rosary recitation. Our Hispanic Ministry has its own YouTube channel now to engage in evangelization with social distancing. The incarcerated are being provided pre-recorded DVD Gospel messages through prison chaplains and coordinators. Catechetical leaders gather online to develop best practices and protocols for Catechesis. RCIA and Sacramental preparations and formations continue with Lectionary-based studies.

Our Ministry Resource Center has developed new and safe protocols for receiving, returning, and quarantining materials before they are re-distributed. Our nursing home residents and their families are nurtured with on-line presence and listening. Our Native American populations are discovering ways to gather and pray remotely with the assistance of our Native American ministry. We continue to discover resources to provide materials for small gatherings and non-gatherings to nurture the Faithful.

We all look forward to the day when we can return to large gatherings with joyful hearts, hugs, and song. In the meantime, the Lord is challenging us to each "Love Your Neighbor" by being present to anyone, anywhere who needs us the best we can. We can all do our part.

I ask you to please give generously to the Annual Catholic Appeal 2021.

Sincerely yours in the Lord,

John C. Wester
Archbishop of Santa Fe
