LENT BEGINS FEBRUARY 17, 2021

This year the Lenten season is early. Let this Lent be a season of renewal for you and your family. The Church provides opportunities for us to encounter Christ through Sacred Scripture and Tradition. The word of God inspires us to see things as God sees. Tradition gives witness to Christ. It is in tradition that many popular devotions developed over time. One of those devotions are The Stations of the Cross or Way of the Cross. When was the last time you prayerfully reflected on each Station? Do you remember how many Stations there are? How many Stations of the Cross can you name?

Every Friday, at 3:00 p.m. during Lent, the Stations of the Cross will be prayed Bilingual at San Felipe de Neri. The dates are as follows:

February 19, February 26, March 5,
March 12, March 19, and March 26

Come and meditate on the passion and death of Christ. In his acceptance of the will of his Father, he endured pain and suffering that you might know true love. There is a price. How will you respond to such a sacrifice? By turning away from sinful behavior thru the mercy of God. Learn how you can find strength and courage to walk your Calvary. We have been redeemed! Let Christ, once again, touch your heart.

LA CUARESMA COMIENZA EL 17 DE FEBRERO DE 2021

Este año la temporada de Cuaresma es temprana. Que esta Cuaresma sea una temporada de renovación para usted y su familia. La Iglesia nos brinda oportunidades para encontrarnos con Cristo a través de la Sagrada Escritura y la Tradición. La palabra de Dios nos inspira a ver las cosas como Dios ve. La tradición da testimonio de Cristo. Es tradición que muchas devociones populares se desarrollaran con el tiempo. Una de esas devociones son las Estaciones de la Cruz o Vía Crucis. ¿Cuándo fue la última vez que reflexionó en oración sobre cada estación? ¿Recuerdas cuántas estaciones hay? ¿Cuántas estaciones de la cruz puedes nombrar?

Todos los viernes, a las 3:00 p.m. durante la Cuaresma, el Vía Crucis se rezará bilingüe en San Felipe de Neri. Las fechas son los siguientes:

19 de febrero, 26 de febrero, 5 de marzo,
12 de marzo & 26 de marzo

Ven y medita en la pasión y muerte de Cristo. Al aceptar la voluntad de su Padre, soportó el dolor y el sufrimiento para que pudieras conocer el amor verdadero. Hay un precio. ¿Cómo responderá a tal sacrificio? Apartándose del comportamiento pecaminoso a través de la misericordia de Dios. Aprenda cómo puede encontrar fuerza y valor para caminar por su Calvario. ¡Hemos sido redimidos! Deja que Cristo, una vez más, toque tu corazón.

Our Biggest Investment is in People, Not Things

By Fr. Gabriel

Sacred Scripture helps us understand the economic need about the importance of “giving money” not because we understand our parish community as a company that is interested in raising money, but as a necessity to continue spreading the gospel through different ecclesial ministries, to parish and diocesan level.

The need to collaborate and help generously expresses a healthy and coherent understanding with our spiritual life, understanding our human effort at work to satisfy our human needs, but also an integral and spiritual growth "Where your treasure is, your heart will also be there" . (Matthew 6:21)

The effort and economic collaboration, indicates the level of whether we love God or the world. Jesus warned us that we cannot do both. We cannot serve the material things of this world and God at the same time (Matthew 6:24)

The generous and free act of helping financially helps us understand the risk and complex consequences of the sin of greed, of being enslaved to the possessions that were created for our liberation, it helps us focus our attention on those things that really matter, the spiritual promises that encourage us to invest in our eternal salvation, and the satisfaction that the things of this world help us to help others in their needs.

The act of generously collaborating, through economic aid and financial support, gives us a logical and necessary vision regarding the use and dependence of those resources that we have received as blessings from God and that in the exercise of our freedom we must use them , according to the level of conscience and faith that we have.

As believers and members of the ecclesial family, we are committed to helping ecclesial ministries and communities that strive to proclaim the gospel of the good news of salvation, both locally and globally.

Generosity is a sincere and necessary spiritual formation against materialism. This ideology consists of the acquisition of things as a "simulated reason" that grants us a "supposed happiness" that will lead even without meaning, to an existential emptiness that will not achieve the satisfaction of human growth and progress guided by the light of the faith and truth. True happiness that is born of spiritual progress cannot be replaced with those theories that seek a selfish and superfluous focus on temporary goods.

The generosity that is born from the heart, with freedom and the sensitivity of mercy strengthens faith as we experience that God responds to our needs: “And God will meet all your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:19; Proverbs 3 : 5, 9-10;) The more we trust God, the more we are willing to be responsible with things of greater value and meaning.

Finally, our generosity leads us to achieve a true investment in eternal things: “lay up treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroy, and where thieves do not penetrate or steal” (Matthew 6:20). Things in this world are happening. God's Word and people don't. That is why the greatest investment of our financial resources is in people, not in things.
