THANK YOU! GRACIAS!

This year the Lenten season is early. Let this Lent be a season of renewal for you and your family. The Church provides opportunities for us to encounter Christ through Sacred Scripture and Tradition. The word of God inspires us to see things as God sees. Tradition gives witness to Christ. It is in tradition that many popular devotions developed over time. One of those devotions are The Stations of the Cross or Way of the Cross. When was the last time you prayerfully reflected on each Station? Do you remember how many Stations there are? How many Stations of the Cross can you name?

Every Friday, at 3:00 p.m. during Lent, the Stations of the Cross will be prayed Bilingual at San Felipe de Neri. The dates are as follows:

February 26, March 5, March 12, March 19, & March 26

Come and meditate on the passion and death of Christ. In his acceptance of the will of his Father, he endured pain and suffering that you might know true love. There is a price. How will you respond to such a sacrifice? By turning away from sinful behavior thru the mercy of God. Learn how you can find strength and courage to walk your Calvary. We have been redeemed! Let Christ, once again, touch your heart.

LA BELLEZA DEL PERDÓN

La humanidad nunca es tan hermosa como cuando reza implorando perdón o cuando perdona a otro.

—Jean P. F. Richter

Este año la temporada de Cuaresma es temprana. Que esta Cuaresma sea una temporada de renovación para usted y su familia. La Iglesia nos brinda oportunidades para encontrarnos con Cristo a través de la Sagrada Escritura y la Tradición. La palabra de Dios nos inspira a ver las cosas como Dios ve. La tradición da testimonio de Cristo. Es tradición que muchas devociones populares se desarrollaran con el tiempo. Una de esas devociones son las Estaciones de la Cruz o Vía Crucis. ¿Cuándo fue la última vez que reflexionó en oración sobre cada estación? ¿Recuerdas cuántas estaciones hay? ¿Cuántas estaciones de la cruz puedes nombrar?

Todos los viernes, a las 3:00 p.m. durante la Cuaresma, el Vía Crucis se rezará bilingüe en San Felipe de Neri. Las fechas son los siguientes:

26 de febrero, 5 de marzo, 12 de marzo & 26 de marzo

Ven y medita en la pasión y muerte de Cristo. Al aceptar la voluntad de su Padre, soportó el dolor y el sufrimiento para que pudieras conocer el amor verdadero. Hay un precio. ¿Cómo responderá a tal sacrificio? Apartándose del comportamiento pecaminoso a través de la misericordia de Dios. Aprenda cómo puede encontrar fuerza y valor para caminar por su Calvario. ¡Hemos sido redimidos! Deja que Cristo, una vez más, toque tu corazón.

My dear Family, with joy and hope we begin this blessed and privileged time of Lent to prepare ourselves worthy for our celebration of Easter, the feast of life and salvation, the feast of Jesus' victory over sin and death. I want to invite you to take advantage of this liturgical time and live the invitation of our liturgy through prayer, penance, and generosity of heart through works of mercy. I also invite you to meditate on the Words that our Holy Pope Francis has directed, the full text appears and the link will be under the text. May we all begin this Holy and blessed Lenten journey together and celebrate it in our liturgy of Holy Week.

Message of the Holy Father Francis for Lent 2021

Lent: a Time for Renewing Faith, Hope and Love.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Jesus revealed to his disciples the deepest meaning of his mission when he told them of his passion, death and resurrection, in fulfilment of the Father's will. He then called the disciples to share in this mission for the salvation of the world.

In our Lenten journey towards Easter, let us remember the One who "humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even death on a cross" (Phil 2:8). During this season of conversion, let us renew our faith, draw from the "living water" of hope, and receive with open hearts the love of God, who makes us brothers and sisters in Christ. At the Easter vigil, we will renew our baptismal promises and experience rebirth as new men and women by the working of the Holy Spirit. This Lenten journey, like the entire pilgrimage of the Christian life, is even now illumined by the light of the resurrection, which inspires the thoughts, attitudes and decisions of the followers of Christ.

Fasting, prayer and almsgiving, as preached by Jesus (cf. Mt 6:1-18), enable and express our conversion. The path of poverty and self-denial (fasting), concern and loving care for the poor (almsgiving), and childlike dialogue with the Father (prayer) make it possible for us to live lives of sincere faith, living hope and effective charity.

In this Lenten season, accepting and living the truth revealed in Christ means, first of all, opening our hearts to God's word, which the Church passes on from generation to generation. This truth is not an abstract concept reserved for a chosen intelligent few. Instead, it is a message that all of us can receive and understand thanks to the wisdom of a heart open to the grandeur of God, who loves us even before we are aware of it. Christ himself is this truth. By taking on our humanity, even to its very limits, he has made himself the way – demanding, yet open to all – that leads to the fullness of life.

Fasting, experienced as a form of self-denial, helps those who undertake it in simplicity of heart to rediscover God's gift and to recognize that, created in his image and likeness, we find our fulfilment in him. In embracing the experience of poverty, those who fast make themselves poor with the poor and accumulate the treasure of a love both received and shared. In this way, fasting helps us to love God and our neighbor, inasmuch as love, as Saint Thomas Aquinas teaches, is a movement outwards that focuses our attention on others and considers them as one with ourselves (cf. Fratelli Tutti, 93).

Lent is a time for believing, for welcoming God into our lives and allowing him to "make his dwelling" among us (cf. Jn 14:23). Fasting involves being freed from all that weighs us down – like consumerism or an excess of information, whether true or false – in order to open the doors of our hearts to the One who comes to us, poor in all things, yet "full of grace and truth" (Jn 1:14): the Son of God our Saviour...
