The Four Marian Dogmas

by Fr. Gabriel

Dogma is a truth that belongs to Christian revelation, which is to be found subsequently in Sacred Tradition or in Sacred Scripture, which taken together constitute the depositum fidei, deposit of faith, which contains all the truths included in it. Christian revelation. Dogmas are truths received from God, not human doctrines, which are set forth in adequate and precise words, according to the designs of God who guides and governs the Church.

THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION OF MARY
This dogma states that the Virgin Mary was preserved from all sin from conception. Pope Pius IX proclaimed this dogma on December 8, 1854 in the Bull Ineffabilis Deus.

"We declare, pronounce and define that the doctrine that maintains that the Blessed Virgin Mary, in the first instant of her conception, was by singular and privilege of Almighty God in anticipation of the merits of Jesus Christ, Savior of the human race, preserved immune from Every stain of original guilt has been revealed by God, therefore, it must be firmly and constantly believed by all the faithful".

THE PERPETUAL VIRGINITY OF MARY
Perpetual Virginity means that the Virgin Mary was a virgin before, during and perpetually after giving birth. It is one of the oldest dogmas in the church, first appearing in a late 2nd century text called the Protoevangelium of James. The second Council of Constantinople in the year (553 AD) gave Mary the title of aeiparthenos (perpetual virgin).

"The deepening of faith in virginal motherhood has led the Church to confess the real and perpetual virginity of Mary even at the birth of the Son of God made man. Indeed, the birth of Christ "far from diminishing consecrated the virginal integrity" of his mother. The Church's liturgy celebrates Mary as the 'Aeiparthenos', the 'ever-virgin'. »Catechism of the Catholic Church.

THE ASSUMPTION OF THE VIRGIN MARY
The Assumption of the Virgin Mary refers to the fact that after her life she was carried body and soul by the angels to heaven, that is, she was assumed unlike Jesus who ascended between heaven. This dogma was proclaimed on November 1, 1950 by Pope Pius XII in the apostolic constitution Munificentisimus Deus. The church established that on August 15 of each year the day of the Assumption of the Virgin would be celebrated, in several countries this day is a holiday and also for the whole church it is a day of obligation.

THE DIVINE MOTHERHOOD OF MARY
It was the first dogma of the Church which refers to the Virgin is really the Mother of God because Jesus and God are the same person uniting two natures. It was proclaimed by the Ephesus Council (431 BC), being Pope Saint Clementino. It is celebrated every January 1 with the feast of Mary, Mother of God (Theotokos in Greek and Mater Dei in Latin).
