Dear Brothers and Sisters at St. Peter's University Hospital,

You are constantly in my thoughts and prayers throughout these days. I write to thank you for the extraordinary service you are providing during these difficult and most challenging days for us all. Les Hirsch is keeping me well informed on all you are doing to care for those afflicted with the corona virus, while still caring for those with other ailments, diseases, and injuries. Your dedication and commitment is an inspiration to me and so many others how you selflessly put yourselves on the "front lines" of this battle against the virus and know that it does not go unnoticed or unappreciated. We are advertising on our Diocesan social media's #OneChurchTogether to try and get you what you need to do your admirable work!

Be assured of my prayers for you and your families daily and that you are not alone in your work. Our Lord, the Divine Healer, and Our Blessed Mother are always by your side.

With renewed best wishes, I remain

Yours in Christ,

Most Reverend James F. Checchio, JCD, MBA
Bishop of Metuchen
