Dear Friends and Neighbors,

In response to the COVID-19 Pandemic, we are announcing a Food Drive for Bread of Life Food Pantry beginning on April 1, 2020 from 6-8pm and continuing for the foreseeable future on the following days and times each week, seeking non-perishable items:

- Monday 2 - 4PM
- Wednesday 6 - 8PM
- Friday 10 - 12PM

Non-perishable Items will be accepted at All Saints Activities Building located on Church Alley between Wilson Street and Dewey Street in Etna Borough. See map attached. Follow Dewey St from Grant Ave, making a right on Wendlin Street, a Right on Wilson Street, and a Right on Church Alley.

At drop-off, please do not enter building. Volunteers will be on hand to receive your donations curbside. Items collected will be cleaned and transported to Bread of Life Food Pantry after one week’s time. This procedure of remote drop-off, cleaning, and delayed transportation is to protect the distribution of food at Bread of Life.

If you have interest in volunteering for Relief Efforts in Etna Borough, please submit this form https://forms.gle/kGcJxDaUxMiMJFLW8 or email volunteer.elcetna@gmail.com or phone 412-453-6770. Volunteer opportunities include but are not limited to:
