Growing in Faith...Building to Serve
Creciendo en Fe, Construyendo para Servir

Today after Mass, members of the Family Promise core team will be in the gathering space after all masses to sign-up volunteers to help in hosting several Family Promise families during the week of July 21 through July 28. There are many volunteer opportunities to help serve during that week. All help will be appreciated. We are also actively recruiting new core team members to help with the planning and working during hosting weeks occasionally. If you are interested in becoming a member of the core team, please speak with members at the signup table or contact Deacon James at 836-5011.

Music Ministers

Who are the music ministers in liturgy? We refer to the instrumentalists and vocalists who lead us in song as the music ministers. And so they are. However, this can be misleading, because we, the community, are the primary music ministers in liturgy. Our job is to sing the songs, to witness to our faith to one another through our singing, and to encourage others to do the same through our enthusiastic song. It is important that we support one another in song and that we hear one another and are not overwhelmed by electronic amplification or muted by sound-absorbing materials. Singing together is an important element of the liturgy, which transforms us from independent individuals to a unified worshiping body. If we feel we do not sing well, we can always remember the words of Psalm 95:1: "O come, let us sing to the LORD; let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation!"

Los ministros de la música

¿Quiénes son los ministros de la música en la Liturgia? Nos referimos a las personas que tocan los instrumentos y a los vocalistas que nos dirigen en el canto como ministros de la música. Eso es lo que son.

Sin embargo, esto puede ser confuso, dado que nosotros, la comunidad, somos los principales ministros de la música en la Liturgia. Nuestra tarea es entonar los cantos, para dar testimonio de nuestra fe entre nosotros a través de nuestro canto y motivando a otros a hacer lo mismo con nuestro entusiasmo. Es importante que nos ayudemos unos a otros en el canto y que nos oigamos y no nos intimidemos por los amplificadores electrónicos ni enmudezcamos por los materiales que absorben el sonido. Cantar juntos es un elemento importante de la Liturgia que, de individuos independientes, nos transforma en un solo cuerpo para rendir culto.

Si creemos que no cantamos bien, siempre podemos recordar las palabras del Salmo 95:1: "Vengan, alegres demos vivas al Señor, aclamemos a la Roca que nos salva."
