HAPPY EASTER FROM OLL YOUTH MINISTRY!
There will be no Middle or High School Confirmation classes for the next two weeks due to the Easter holiday and then the NUSD Spring break. Classes resume the week of April 20.

Spring Clean Up Time is upon us! Do you have some work around your property that needs some extra hands? OLL YOUTH MINISTRY will be sending 25 young people to this year’s Steubenville San Diego conference this Summer from July 23-26. We need your help getting there and we’re willing to work for it! While we will be fundraising in the months to come, each family is responsible for contributing $500 – this works out to be about 2/3 of their total trip cost. We have already had requests from parishioners looking to hire out yard help, set-up/clean-up for events, etc. If you have any opportunities for our teens, please contact the youth ministry office. (annie@ollnovato.org; 897-2171 x277) Thanks! If you are interested in learning more about what our teens will experience during this powerful weekend, please visit www.allforgodcatholic.org and click on the “Steubenville San Diego” tab.
Mark your calendars for Our Lady of Loretto’s 11th Annual Youth Ministry Golf Tournament to be held Thursday, June 25th, at Indian Valley Golf Club. We hope each and every parishioner will support this very special fund raiser by being a sponsor, playing a round of golf, purchasing a raffle ticket, and/or attending the dinner in the church hall following the tournament. With your continued generous support, we can provide much-needed funds for Youth Ministry, a most important program for the teens and young adults of our parish. Thank you! 11th Annual Golf Committee

The North Marin Auxiliary of St. Vincent de Paul at St. Anthony’s presents its Annual Spring Luncheon on Wednesday, April 22nd at the Marin Country Club. You can make your reservations by calling Gwen Johnson at 415-883-3055. Please bring your friends and join us for an elegant and fun afternoon.

Wishing you a Blessed Easter!

Religious Ed Gr. 1-6 will be on NUSD Spring Break the week of April 12. There is no class 4/13 or 4/14. Classes resume 4/20 and 4/21.

First Communion practices for all those children participating in the May 2 First Communion will take place on Tuesdays 4/21 and 4/28 from 3:30-5:00. Parents please drop off your children at the school library and pick up from the church.

The St. Vincent de Paul Pantry is in need of peanut butter, jelly/jam, spaghetti sauce, and canned fruit. Please place your donations in the marked baskets in the church vestibules. Please do not bring your donation to the rectory office. We appreciate and thank you for your continuing support and will keep you in our prayers.

In response to the call of Pope Francis who declared 2015 the Year of Consecrated Life, the Archdiocesan Council of Religious is presenting the film, Women and Spirit, based on the exhibit of the same name which toured throughout the United States. It chronicles the history of the thousands of Sisters who came to this country and founded the Catholic School system, built hospitals, orphanages, homes for the poor, mental institutions, and many more programs benefitting the poor and marginalized. Following the film, there will be a panel of four women religious: Daughters of Charity, Sisters of Mercy, Franciscan Sisters, and Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur who will speak of their work in the Archdiocese as well as throughout the world. The event is sponsored by the Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish, the Knights of Columbus, San Mateo Council, and the San Mateo Serra Club. All are welcome as our guests.

A CHEERFUL GIVER

A cheerful giver does not count the cost of what he gives. His heart is set on pleasing and cheering the one to whom the gift is given.

—St. Julian

CHRIST IS HERE

Christ departed from our sight that we might return to our heart, and there find him. For he departed, and behold, he is here.

—St. Augustine
Dear Parishioners

The culmination of our Lenten and Holy Week prayer and sacrifice has been seen in Jesus’ Resurrection on Easter Sunday morning. Like all realities it sometimes takes a while for the full impact to become clear. In today’s gospel (Easter Tuesday) Mary Magdalen is at the tomb weeping because, “They have taken my Lord, and I don’t know where they laid him.” She no sooner says this, when a stranger, she thinks is the gardener, calls her name, “Mary”. At that moment she turns and says, “Rabbouni”. Acknowledged by name, Mary immediately recognizes Jesus. She is still overwhelmed and maybe a bit confused but she is relieved that she has “seen the Lord”. She embraces the mission that comes from recognizing the Christ and runs to announce to the disciples that, “I have seen the Lord”. Sometimes it takes a while to see beyond the surface, to see and experience the resurrection of Christ in us. These special days of Easter are a time for us to be attentive and ask Jesus to reveal His new life within us; to reveal His mercy and love that is present in us, both individually and collectively.

As a parish we have shared in the rich Holy Week and Easter liturgies made possible by so many individuals. What we see on the surface is there, because of the generosity of others; actions often done behind the scenes. We are very grateful for all that each one of you has done, seen or unseen, to make our Easter such a blessed one. “Thank You” to Rich Elliot and Johnnie Solis and the members of the English and Spanish choirs for the many hours of practice and the beautiful music and song provided for our liturgies; to the EM’s, Lectors, Servers and Ushers; to the Altar Society who cleaned, polished, and prepared the Church; to the Spanish community for preparing the Altar of Repose and setting up the hall for Easter Sunday; to the Staff members, especially Patrick, Nick and Roberto who supplied the heavy lifting; to those that helped with decorating, Kris Wiley, Jean Ledoux and Irene Reich; and to those of you who brought Lilies, Orchids and Calla Lilies. Thank you so very much.

May God bless each of you.
Sister Jeanette, OSU

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

When we imagine the disciples cowering behind locked doors on the first Easter, it is a matter of the greatest urgency that the doors get opened. They are not locked in as if in prison; rather, they have chosen to marinate in fear. Both the lock and the key stand on their side of the door, in their control. Christ breaks through this significant barrier with a message of “Peace.” The risen Lord’s word propels them through the door and along the path leading to the consoling image of the community living in harmony in the first reading today. What do we pray for in our tradition? More than anything else, we pray for peace. Every Mass is an earnest prayer for peace with God, with self, with neighbor, and for peace in the world. Yet, curiously, the peace Christ offers is deeper than the mere absence of conflict. Our tradition treasures the memories of saints who were remarkably open to Christ’s gift of peace even in the maelstroms of history. St. Edith Stein and St. Maximillian Kolbe, martyrs of the Holocaust, are but two examples. At the eye of a fearful storm, they stand as witnesses to the power of Christ’s rising in our lives.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS
God, our Father, In Your love and providence, You call each of us to a more holy and abundant life. We pray for our young people in the Archdiocese of San Francisco. Open their hearts and minds to know the vocation You have planned for them for all eternity. If they are being invited to follow You as a priest, Brother, or Sister, give them a generous heart to respond to Your challenging call and the strength to follow wherever You lead them. May families desire to please You by encouraging and supporting vocations within their homes. We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Good Shepherd. Amen.

If you think God is calling you to the priesthood or religious life and would to learn how to respond, you may contact Fr. David Schunk in the Office of Vocations: 415-614-5684, vocations@sfarchdiocese.org

Dios Padre nuestro, que en tu amorosa providencia nos llamas a cada uno a vivir en plenitud y santidad. Te rogamos por nuestros jóvenes de la Arquidiócesis de San Francisco. Abre sus mentes y sus corazones para que descubran el estilo de vida que desde toda la eternidad Tú los has llamado a vivir. Si Tú los estás llamando a que te sigan y vivan como sacerdotes, hermanos o hermanas, religiosos o religiosas, dales un corazón generoso para que respondan a tu llamada desafiante y así te puedan seguir a donde Tú los lleves. Te pedimos que las familias deseen complacerte animando y apoyando las vocaciones en sus hogares. Te lo pedimos [Padre] por tu Hijo Jesucristo, nuestro Buen Pastor. Amén.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE
En tiempos pasados, cuando la misa era en latín, no teníamos la oportunidad de escuchar en nuestro propio idioma las bellas palabras que Cristo pronunció durante la Última Cena y que el sacerdote repite durante la Consagración: “Esto es mi cuerpo”... “Esta es mi sangre”. Por tal razón los monaguillos sonaban unas campanitas indicando que algo importante estaba pasando. En ese momento ella se vuelve y dice: "Rabbouni". Reconocido por su nombre, María reconoce inmediatamente a Jesús. Ella todavía está abrumado y tal vez un poco confundido pero ella está aliviado de que ella ha "visto al Señor". Ella abraza la misión que viene de reconocer al Cristo y corre a anunciar a los discípulos que: "He visto al Señor". A veces se necesita un tiempo para ver más allá de la superficie, de ver y experimentar la resurrección de Cristo en nosotros. En estos días especiales de Pascua son un tiempo para nosotros estar atento y pedimos a Jesús para revelar su nueva vida dentro de nosotros; para revelar su misericordia y de amor que existe en nosotros, tanto individual como colectivamente.

La culminación de nuestra oración y el sacrificio de Cuaresma y la Semana Santa se ha visto en la resurrección de Jesús el Domingo de Pascua por la mañana. Como todas las realidades a veces toma un tiempo para que el impacto total se convierta en claro. En el evangelio de hoy (martes de Pascua) María Magdalena es llorando junto al sepulcro, ya que, "Se han llevado a mi Señor y no sé dónde lo han puesto". Ella no bien dice esto, cuando un extraño, ella piensa que es el jardinoer , llama a su nombre, "María". En ese momento ella se vuelve y dice: "Rabbouni". Reconocido por su nombre, María reconoce inmediatamente a Jesús. Ella todavía está abrumado y tal vez un poco confundido pero ella está aliviado de que ella ha "visto al Señor". Ella abraza la misión que viene de reconocer al Cristo y corre a anunciar a los discípulos que: "He visto al Señor". A veces se necesita un tiempo para ver más allá de la superficie, de ver y experimentar la resurrección de Cristo en nosotros. En estos días especiales de Pascua son un tiempo para nosotros estar atento y pedimos a Jesús para revelar su nueva vida dentro de nosotros; para revelar su misericordia y de amor que existe en nosotros, tanto individual como colectivamente.

Como una parroquia que hemos compartido en las ricas liturgias de Semana Santa y de Pascua hechos posibles por tantas personas. Lo que vemos en la superficie está ahí, gracias a la generosidad de los demás; acciones hacen a menudo detrás de las escenas. Esta mos muy agradecidos por todo lo que cada uno de ustedes ha hecho, visto o no visto, para que nuestra Pascua uno tan bendecida. "Gracias" a Rich Elliot y Johnnie Solis y los miembros de los coros en castellano de las muchas horas de práctica y la hermosa música y el canto prevista nuestras liturgias Inglés y; a la EM, Lectores, Servidores y Ujieres; a la Sociedad del Altar que limpiaba, pulido, y preparó la Iglesia; a la comunidad española para preparar el Altar de Reposo y la creación de la sala para el Domingo de Pascua; a los miembros del personal, especialmente Patrick, Nick y Roberto que suministraron el trabajo pesado; a los que ayudaron con la decoración, Kris Wiley, Jean Ledoux e Irene Reich; y para aquellos de ustedes que trajeron lirios, orquídeas y lirios de cala. Muchísimas gracias.

Que Dios bendiga a cada uno de ustedes.
