call on the name of the Lord (Psalm 116).
Second Reading — Christ is the mediator of a new covenant (Hebrews 9:11-15).

St. Vincent de Paul
Thank you to all who donated to our St. Vincent de Paul collection last weekend. We collected $6,077.50 to support their good works. Thank you and God bless you for your continued generosity.

OUR SACRIFICE

Let us offer Christ the great universal sacrifice of our love. For he offered his cross to God as sacrifice in order to make us all rich.

—St. Ephrem
Golfers, did you file away your reservation form for this year’s Youth Ministry Golf Tournament on June 25th? If so, it’s time to find it, fill it out, and send it in, as the tournament is fast approaching. Single golfers are welcome! Those of you who don’t golf are invited to join us at the dinner in the church hall following the tournament. Reservation forms are available at all church exits. Thank you!

THANKSGIVING

The word “thanksgiving” most often calls to our mind the holiday in November. But as early as the middle of the second century Justin Martyr referred to the blessed bread and wine of the Lord’s Supper as “food we call ‘thanksgiving’” (in Greek eucharistia). The Thanksgiving we celebrate in the autumn is at times marked by a sort of proud societal self-congratulation and the consumption of food until we sink into an inert stupor. The “thanksgiving” that we call our Eucharist is just the opposite: we are led to it by an acknowledgment of our own failings; we remember our humble place in the scheme of things by giving praise to God alone.

While the food of Christ’s body and blood fills our spiritual hungers, it also creates in us a greater hunger. We are not sent to our spiritual sofas to let the Lord’s Supper settle; we are sent to be living signs of that thanksgiving for the world by looking out for the poor and powerless, feeding the hungry, caring for the sick, speaking out against the self-righteous. In short, the hunger created by our doing in remembrance of Christ must lead us to living in remembrance of him.

Dear Friends,

Last Friday, 26 8th Graders graduated from our school. I wanted to give them my road map to a happy life. The following includes my 16 Commandments in living out that happy life in no particular order:

1) Be good listeners. Listen twice as much as you talk.
2) Listen to your parents. They know a lot more about life than you do. They’ve been your age before.
3) Respect everyone, especially those who are different than you!
4) Disagree yes! Disagreeable no!
5) Make good friends. A person is rich who has good friends. Quality over quantity!
7) Don’t follow the crowd. Don’t give in to peer pressure. Choose the road less traveled.
8) Stay away from drugs, alcohol, and yes, sex, unless you are in a loving, committed relationship.
9) Say please and thank you. Be courteous to people, especially strangers. When driving, give the other driver the right of way.
10) Love your country, despite its faults. Vote when you turn 18. Pay your fair share of taxes. Get involved. Do volunteer work.
11) Avoid bad language and needless gossip. You are a much better person than that!
12) Read, read, read! If you like to read, you will never be bored.
13) Pray, pray, pray! If everyone abandons you and times look bleak, God will always be with you.
14) The Golden Rule: “Treat others like you would like to be treated.” Could it be said any better than this?
15) Share with others, especially with those who have a lot less than you do.
16) Don’t ever forget what it was like to be a kid. One day you will have kids yourselves!

Happy Corpus Christi Sunday!

Go Warriors!

POPE FRANCIS’ FIVE FINGER PRAYER

Using the fingers on your hand, start with the thumb and pray these intentions in this order:

1.) The thumb is closest finger to you. So start praying for those who are closest to you. They are the persons easiest to remember. To pray for our dear ones is a "Sweet Obligation."
2.) The next finger is the index. Pray for those who teach you, instruct you and heal you. They need the support and wisdom to show direction to others. Always keep them in your prayers.
3.) The following finger is the tallest. It reminds us of our leaders, the governors and those who have authority. They need God's guidance.
4.) The fourth finger is the ring finger. Even though it may surprise you, it is our weakest finger. It should remind us to pray for the weakest, the sick or those plagued by problems. They need your prayers.
5.) And finally we have our smallest finger, the smallest of all. Your pinkie should remind you to pray for yourself. When you are done praying for the other four groups, you will be able to see your own needs but in the proper perspective, and also you will be able to pray for your own needs in a better way.

FROM THE OFFICE OF MARRIAGE AND FAMILY LIFE

It has come to our attention that individuals have been distributing flyers entitled “the truth about birth control pills” at some parishes. The flyers state that they were “approved by the Archdiocese of S.F.” THIS IS NOT TRUE.

Our Respect Life Program and Office of Marriage and Family Life can provide you with accurate resources on this and other pro-life and pro-family topics. We are here to discuss and respond to your questions and concerns regarding artificial contraception and natural family planning (NFP).

“The fundamental human right, the presupposition of every other right, is the right to life itself. This is true of life from the moment of conception until its natural end. Abortion, consequently, cannot be a human right – it is the very opposite. It is ‘a deep wound in society.’”
— Pope Benedict XVI, September 7, 2007 Meeting with the Authorities and the Diplomatic Corps,
Queridos Amigos,

El viernes pasado, 26 estudiantes de 8° grado se graduaron de nuestra escuela. Yo quería darles mi hoja de ruta para una vida feliz. A continuación se incluye mis 16 mandamientos en vivir esa vida feliz en ningún orden en particular:

1) Ser buenos oyentes. Escucha el doble de lo que hablas.
2) Escuche a sus padres. Ellos saben mucho más sobre la vida que tú. Han sido su edad antes.
3) Respetar a todos, especialmente a los que son diferentes a usted!
4) En desacuerdo sí! Ninguna desagradable!
5) Hacer buenos amigos. Una persona es rica que tiene buenos amigos. Calidad sobre cantidad!
6) Los griegos tienen una expresión: 'conócete a ti mismo.' Shakespeare dijo: 'Para ti mismo ser verdad.' Sé tú mismo, no otra persona. Siéntate cómodo en tu propia piel.
7) No seguir a la multitud. No ceder a la presión de grupo. Elegir el camino menos transitado.
8) Manténgase alejado de las drogas, el alcohol, el sexo, a menos que esté en una relación amorosa comprometida.
9) Diga gracias y favor. Sea cortés con la gente, especialmente los extranjeros. Al conducir, dar al otro conductor el derecho de vía.
10) No seguir a la multitud. No ceder a la presión de grupo. Elegir el camino menos transitado.
11) Evite malas palabras y chismes innecesario. Usted es una persona mucho mejor que eso!
12) Leer, leer, leer! Si te gusta leer, nunca se aburrirá.
13) Oren, oren, oren! Si todo el mundo abandona a usted, siempre hay que 海洋，Dios siempre estará con vosotros.
14) La Regla de Oro: 'Trata a los demás como te gustaría ser tratado.' ¿Se puede decir nada mejor que esto?
15) Compartir con los demás, especialmente con aquellos que tienen mucho menos de lo que haces.
16) No te olvides nunca lo que eres un niño. Un día tendrás hijos os hagáis!

Feliz Corpus Christi Domingo!

Van los guerreros!
