Jesus teaches us another way: Go out. Go out and share your testimony, go out and interact with your brothers, go out and share, go out and ask.
Become the Word in body as well as spirit.

Pope Francis
Dear Friends,

- It was great to celebrate the great feast of Pentecost with you last Sunday. After Easter, this is the most important feast we celebrate during our Liturgical Year. Even though we go back to Ordinary Time, there is nothing ordinary about it. This Season of Ordinary Time will last until the First Sunday of Advent. In the meantime, we celebrate two Solemnities these next two Sunday’s: today we celebrate Trinity Sunday and next Sunday we celebrate Corpus Christi Sunday. There is nothing ordinary about these two great feasts.

- Sometimes I get a letter in the mail that touches my heart. I would like to share it with you:
  “You mentioned in a previous bulletin you needed money to update the bathrooms in the hall. Please use this money to that cause. We were fortunate with our income taxes this year so I’m sharing some with the church to the benefit of all. I was at the ground breaking of the hall many years ago.”
  I wish I had more parishioners like this. Instead of engaging in needless gossip and tearing things down, this person has chosen to build things up literally! Thank you!

- Good news, especially for the ladies. Come June 24th to September 1st, the Hall will be closed due to construction for our new bathrooms. The good news, ladies, is that we are going from two stalls to four. The cost of the remodeling of the bathrooms is around $120,000. We could not do this except for your continued generosity and the downsizing our staff. Again, many, many thanks!

- AAA update: We have collected $105,000 for the Appeal leaving us $30,000 short of our goal. If you have given to the Appeal, thank you. If you haven’t given please consider giving. Together, I know we can reach our goal.

- Eucharistic Ministers Alert: Last Sunday after the 10 o’clock Mass, we had an unfortunate incident with a woman who refused to consume the host which she had in her hand. I think there was something wrong with her, but be that as it may, please Eucharistic Ministers, be on your guard. If someone takes the host and doesn’t consume it, please remind them. If that doesn’t work, stop giving out Communion and go to their pew, if need be, and tell them to consume the host. I hate shaming people in public, but this is the Body of Christ after all! This has always worked for me until last Sunday. Also, we need more Eucharistic Ministers to the Sick. Are you willing to serve? If so, please get in touch with me. Many thanks!

- On Father’s Day, June 19th, after the 12noon Mass, we will be having a goodbye party for Deacon Alex in the hall. This party will be put on by the different parish groups, Spanish Directiva, Helping Hands, Knights of Columbus and SVDP Society. Please plan on attending to wish Deacon Alex goodbye as he moves to Orange County to be close to his daughter and grandchild. Thank you, Alex, for your 19 years of service to OLL.

Happy Trinity Sunday!

Father Brian

Congratulations to our newly Confirmed young adults.
May the light of the Holy Spirit always shine brightly within you!!!

JOURNEY OF FAITH

We are on a long and eventful journey. Today’s readings for Trinity Sunday succinctly cover the depth and breadth of our human travels.

The very beginnings of our journey are revealed in the reading from Proverbs. God’s plan filled with divine wisdom was born before the earth was made. In today’s Gospel, Jesus speaks of his own personal journey. He has come from the Father and will return to the Father. Only then will the Advocate—the Spirit of Truth—take us onward.

This does not diminish the fact that the journey will be hard. The very setting of the Gospel is the night before Jesus died. As Saint Paul writes to the Romans, “[W]e even boast of our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope” (Romans 5:3-4).

Ultimately, our human journey is modeled by the Holy Trinity—a family of love among Father, Son, and Spirit that we are all called to emulate.

TODAY’S READINGS
First Reading — Before anything was created, the wisdom of God was brought forth (Proverbs 8:22-31).
Psalm — O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth! (Psalm 8).
Second Reading — God’s love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us (Romans 5:1-5).
Gospel — Everything that the Father has is mine; the Spirit will take from what is mine and declare it to you (John 16:12-15).

Golf News: Have you seen the Youth Ministry Golf Tournament Sponsor board in the front vestibule of the church? Do check it out! Consider being a sponsor and help us fill the rest of the board with a golf ball bearing your name or business. Chip in to make the 12th Annual Youth Ministry Golf Tournament the most successful yet! Thank you!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Around the turn of the fourth century, Augustine, still fairly fresh from the baptismal waters in Milan, was elected bishop of a tiny city in North Africa, Hippo. He told his people, “While I am frightened by what I am for you, then I am consoled by what I am with you. For you I am a bishop, with you I am a Christian.” He had his priorities right, and also knew that everyone coming from the water arises with a ministry, a specific role, in bringing about God’s kingdom.

If we were asked to purge English of Greek vocabulary, we would gain an insight into key ministries in our church. Bishop, from the Greek episkopos, would become simply “overseer;” priest, from the Greek presybter, would become “elder;” and deacon, from the Greek diakonos, would be “servant.” Each title stands in relationship to all the baptized, serving the community, helping it to be the Body of Christ. In our deepest tradition, each of these ordained ministries is attuned to help us become our best selves, to hunger and thirst for the coming of God’s kingdom. The goal for each one of us is to be able to recognize the presence of Christ in worship and in service. Although only some of us are ordained to ministry, each of us is called to ministry.

OLL Confirmation & Youth Ministry

Thank you to all of our middle & high school families for a wonderful 2015/16 school year! Registration materials for the 2016/17 program year will be sent to all families in the month of June. There will be no YM Thursdays until May 26. See you then!

Teens interested in golfing in or working at our 12th Annual YM Golf Tournament should call the youth ministry office for more information. Lots of service hours are available to those who want to get a jump on their volunteer requirements for next school year (both school AND Confirmation!)

WORK OPPORTUNITIES: OLL YOUTH MINISTRY will be sending 25 young people to this year’s Steubenville San Diego conference this Summer from July 29-31. We need your help getting there and we’re willing to work for it! While we will be fundraising in the months to come, each family is responsible for contributing $400 – this works out to be about 2/3 of their total trip cost. We have already had requests from parishioners looking to hire out yard help, set-up/clean-up for events, etc. If you have any opportunities for our teens, please contact the youth ministry office. (annie@ollnovato.org; 897-2171 x277) Thanks! If you are interested in learning more about what our teens will experience during this powerful weekend, please visit www.allforgodcatholic.org and click on the “Steubenville San Diego” tab.

OLETURADAS DE HOY
Primera lectura — Antes de que algo fuese creado, la sabiduría de Dios estaba presente (Proverbios 8:22-31).
Salmo — ¡Qué admirable, Señor, es tu poder! (Salmo 8)
Segunda lectura — El amor de Dios ha sido derramado en nuestro corazón mediante el Espíritu Santo que hemos recibido (Romanos 5:1-5).
Evangelio — Todo lo que el Padre tiene es mío; el Espíritu de verdad tomará todo lo que es mío y te lo concederá (Juan 1:12-15).
Queridos amigos,

Fue genial para celebrar la gran fiesta de Pentecostés con que el domingo pasado. Después de Pascua, esta es la fiesta más importante que celebramos durante nuestro año litúrgico. A pesar de que volvamos a tiempo ordinario, no hay nada extraordinario en ella. Esta temporada de tiempo ordinario durará hasta el primer domingo de Adviento. Mientras tanto, celebramos dos solemnidades estos dos siguientes del domingo: Hoy celebramos el Domingo de Trinidad y el próximo domingo se celebran domingo de Corpus Christi. No hay nada extraordinario en estos dos grandes festas.

A veces me da una carta en el correo que me llega al corazón. Me gustaría compartir con ustedes: "Usted ha mencionado en un boletín anterior que necesitaba dinero para actualizar los cuartos de baño en el pasillo. Por favor, use este dinero a esa causa. Tuvimos la suerte con nuestros impuestos sobre la renta de este año, así que estoy compartiendo algunas de ellas con la iglesia para el beneficio de todos. Yo estaba en la ruptura del suelo de la sala hace muchos años ".

Me gustaría tener más feligreses como este. En lugar de participar en chismes innecesaria y desgarrar las cosas, esta persona ha elegido para construir cosas, literalmente! ¡Gracias!

Una buena noticia, especialmente para las mujeres. Ven 24 de de junio de de 1 de septiembre de la sala estará cerrada debido a la construcción de los nuevos baños. La buena noticia, señoras, es que estamos pasando de dos a cuatro puestos. El costo de la remodelación de los baños es de alrededor de 120,000 $. No podríamos hacer esto, excepto por su constante generosidad y la reducción de nuestro personal. Una vez más, muchas, muchas gracias!

Actualización de la AAA: Hemos recogido $ 105,000 para la apelación que nos deja $ 30,000 por debajo de nuestro objetivo. Si ha dado a la apelación, gracias. Si usted no ha dado por que no dar. Juntos, sé que podemos alcanzar nuestra meta.

Ministros de la Eucaristía Alerta: El domingo pasado después de los 10 la misa, que tuvo un desafortunado incidente con una mujer que se negó a consumir el huésped que tenía en la mano. Creo que había algo mal con ella, pero sea como fuere, por favor, ministros de la Eucaristía, sea en guardia. Si alguien se toma el anfitrión y no consume, por favor recordarles. Si eso no funciona, deje de darle la comunión a cabo e ir a su banco, si es necesario, y diles a consumir el huésped. Odio a la gente avergonzar en público, pero este es el Cuerpo de Cristo, después de todo! Esto siempre me ha funcionado hasta el domingo pasado. Además, necesitamos más ministros de la Eucaristía a los enfermos. ¿Está dispuesto a servir? Si es así, por favor ponerse en contacto conmigo. ¡Muchas gracias!

En el Día del Padre, 19 de junio, después de la misa de las 12 del mediodía, vamos a tener una fiesta de despedida para Deacon Alex en la sala. Este partido será organizado por los diferentes grupos parroquiales, Español directiva, las manos que ayudan, los Caballeros de Colón y Sociedad SVDP. Por favor planeee asistir a desear Deacon Alex adiós mientras se mueve al Condado de Orange para estar cerca de su hija y nieto. Gracias, Alex, por sus 19 años de servicio a Oll.

Feliz Domingo de la Trinidad!

Padre Brian
