Father Brian’s Letter will return in a few weeks.

Have a great week!

HONOR TEACHERS

During the presidency of Dwight David Eisenhower, James Michener, author of “Hawaii,” “The Source” and other mega-sellers, was invited to a celebrity dinner at the White House. In a letter Michener declined to attend: “Dear Mr. President: I received your invitation three days after I had agreed to speak a few words at a dinner honoring the wonderful high school teacher who taught me how to write. I know you will not miss me at your dinner, but she might at hers.”

A week later, Michener received a handwritten reply from the understanding Ike: “In his lifetime a man lives under 15 or 16 presidents, but a really fine teacher comes into his life but rarely. Go and speak at your teacher’s dinner.”

School is now closing for the Summer, so let us honor all our teachers. They sacrifice their time to prepare lessons, decorate classrooms, teach with loving care, and most importantly, to be “there” for their students.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It is often heard that today’s observance is an “idea feast,” and that it is somewhat difficult to grasp its meaning. Other great solemnities, such as Christmas and Easter, have an easily grasped core. Yet, even though the Trinity is at the heart of our faith, firmly declared in the Creed since the Council of Nicea in 325, we are used to having people shrug and say, “Well, it’s a mystery.”

Perhaps it is more helpful to think of this as a “relationship feast,” since it unveils our deepest identity. Dorothy Day was a great social reformer, pacifist, and ardent lover of the Trinity. When people told her that she would certainly be canonized one day (the process is indeed underway), she protested dismissively by remarking that people were raising a fuss just because she was not afraid to talk about God. She loved the Trinity, and treasured the traditional icon for the feast, also known as “The Hospitality of Abraham,” depicting the three angelic beings seated at a table tilted toward the viewer and laden with bread and wine. For her, the Trinity revealed the heart of the Catholic life, three C’s if you will: community, communication, and communion. That was not an “idea” for her, but what it means to be created in the image of the Triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

HE INEXPRESSIBLE MYSTERY
The God of the universe is mysterious. Science has not been able to solve the mystery of how the universe came into being or explain exactly what continues to give it creative energy and masterful design. No religion asserts that it has found words to name fully the ineffable mystery of God, for no matter what name we use, God always transcends our limited ability to understand. God is a mystery to be believed, not known. And yet, we Christians believe that our name for God best expresses that inexpressible mystery: God is the Most Holy Trinity of three persons united in a communion of love, pouring forth that creative, saving, sanctifying love into the world. Today’s scriptures celebrate the mystery of the Trinity and give us clues for living that mystery in our lives.

MISTERIO INEXPRESABLE
El Dios del universo es misterioso. La ciencia no ha podido resolver el misterio de cómo el universo surgió ni explicar exactamente qué es lo que continúa dándole energía creadora y diseño magistral. Ninguna religión afirma que ha encontrado las palabras para nombrar plenamente el misterio inefable de Dios, ya que no importa qué nombre usemos, Dios siempre transcende nuestra limitada capacidad de comprensión. Dios es un misterio en el que se cree y que no se conoce. Y sin embargo, nosotros los cristianos creemos que el nombre que usamos para Dios es el que mejor expresa ese misterio inexpresable: Dios es la Santísima Trinidad de tres personas unidas en una comunión de amor, que se vierte en amor creador, salvador y santificador sobre el mundo. Las lecturas de hoy celebran el misterio de la Trinidad y nos dan las claves para vivir ese misterio en nuestras vidas.

LECTURAS DE HOY
Primera lectura -- Moisés subió al Monte Sinaí y luego el Señor pasó delante de él (Éxodo 34:4b-6, 8-9).
Salmo -- ¡Gloria y alabanza por siempre! (Daniel 3)
Segunda lectura -- Trabajen para ser perfectos, anímense, tengan un mismo sentir y vivan en paz. Y el Dios del amor y de la paz estará con ustedes (2 Corintios 13:11-13).
Evangelio -- Dios mandó a su Hijo único al mundo para salvar el mundo por él. (Juan 3:16-18).
La carta del padre Brian volverá en unas pocas semanas.
¡Que tengas una buena semana!

ORACION PARA LAS VOCACIONES

Amadísimo y generoso Dios,
Eres Tú quien nos llama por nuestro nombre y nos pides que te sigamos.

Ayúdanos a crecer en el amor y en el servicio a nuestra Iglesia.

Danos el entusiasmo y la energía de tu Espíritu para preparar su futuro.

Danos líderes llenos de fe que abracen la misión de Cristo en amor y en justicia.

Bendice la Iglesia de Loretto con líderes de nuestras familias que dediquen sus vidas al servicio de su pueblo como sacerdotes, religiosos, diáconos y ministros laicos.

Inspíranos a conocerte mejor y abre nuestros corazones para oír tu llamada.
Amén.

GRACIAS PROFESORES
Durante la presidencia de Dwight David Eisenhower, James Michener, autor de "Hawaii", "La Fuente" y otros mega-vendedores, fue invitado a una cena de celebridades en la Casa Blanca. En una carta, Michener se negó a asistir: "Estimado señor Presidente: Recibí su invitación tres días después de haber acordado hablar unas cuantas palabras en una cena en honor a la maravillosa maestra de secundaria que me enseñó a escribir. Sé que no me echarás de menos en tu cena, pero podría estar en la suya.

Una semana después, Michener recibió una respuesta manuscrita de la comprensión de Ike: "En su vida un hombre vive con 15 o 16 presidentes, pero un maestro muy bueno entra en su vida pero rara vez. Ve y habla en la cena de tu profesor.

La escuela se está cerrando ahora para el verano, así que honremos a todos nuestros maestros. Ellos sacrifican su tiempo para preparar lecciones, decorar las aulas, enseñar con cariño y, lo que es más importante, estar "allí" para sus estudiantes."
