FROM ADULT FAITH FORMATION:
Join us for our Marin Parish Mission here at OLL on November 4, 5 & 6 at 7pm in the Church. We are so happy to welcome story teller and musician Steve Angrisano back to Our Lady of Loretto for a three-night event that is sure to build your faith and encourage your hearts. Steve Angrisano is undoubtedly one of the most effective and versatile ministry leaders in the Church today. Young and old alike embrace the passionate message of faith, hope and love woven throughout his music and storytelling. Always rooted in a spirit of humility and faithfulness, Steve’s easy, honest style of ministry is born from who he is: a committed witness to the life and love of Jesus Christ. All are welcome to this free event, suitable for all ages. Please spread the word and invite your friends.

OLL BOOK CLUB
The OLL Book Club will meet next on November 8 at 10am in the Convent Chapel for coffee & discussion of Bryan Mercier’s “Why Do You Believe in God”. Don’t have time to read the book? Come and join us anyway, all are welcome! If you would like discussion questions emailed to you ahead of time, please contact amy@ollnovato.org

INTERESTED IN BECOMING CATHOLIC?
We would love to talk to you about the Truth, Beauty and Goodness to be found in Jesus’ Church! Contact Annie Troy for information: annie@ollnovato.org / 415-897-2171.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION 1-6
Parents, please RSVP to annie@ollnovato.org for childcare for the First Communion/Confirmation parent retreat coming up on Saturday Nov. 3. (We want to make sure we have enough volunteer babysitters to help you on that day.).

RCIA/Adult Education
No meeting this Wednesday, October 31st.

Have a great week!

CARE-GIVER SUPPORT GROUP
If you are interested in participating in a care-giver support group, please contact Sr. Jeannette. We are currently meeting twice a month and are open to have participants come when they can. Please contact me for details. (415-897-5700 or 415-897-2171 ext. 226).

PRAYER OF SAINT OSCAR ROMERO
It helps, now and then, to step back and take a long view. The kingdom is not only beyond our efforts, it is even beyond our vision.
We accomplish in our lifetime only a tiny fraction of the magnificent enterprise that is God’s work. Nothing we do is complete, which is a way of saying that the Kingdom always lies beyond us. No statement says all that could be said. No prayer fully expresses our faith. No confession brings perfection. No pastoral visit brings wholeness. No program accomplishes the Church’s mission. No set of goals and objectives includes everything. This is what we are about.
We plant the seeds that one day will grow. We water seeds already planted, knowing that they hold future promise. We lay foundations that will need further development. We provide yeast that produces far beyond our capabilities. We cannot do everything, and there is a sense of liberation in realizing that. This enables us to do something, and to do it very well. It may be incomplete, but it is a beginning, a step along the way, an opportunity for the Lord’s grace to enter and do the rest.
We may never see the end results, but that is the difference between the master builder and the worker. We are workers, not master builders; ministers, not messiahs.
We are prophets of a future not our own.

AMEN
Dear Friends,

What a weekend we had last week!

First off, thanks to the school parents for a great Octoberfest. Hard to believe, the hall looked beautiful in a German sort of way. We had German food (of course!) and a wonderful auction which I hope raised a lot of money for the school. One of the auction items was a dinner for eight in the Rectory. I look forward to hosting this dinner. A lot of people got dressed up in their favorite German outfits. Thank you, parents, for all your hard work to make this happen. You truly love our school and it shows.

Speaking of school parents, the school will be hosting a pancake breakfast today after the 10 o’clock Mass. The cost of the breakfast, with all the trimmings, is $5.00. What a deal! See you over in the hall.

Thank you, Sister Joy, for your presence among us last weekend. Thank you for your inspiring talk. I hope we raised a lot for the Missions. May I say, that it was a joy having you. I hope our paths cross again!

Today is our annual Halloween Mass for the children in our parish. I look forward to seeing all our children in their costumes at the 10 o’clock Mass. Candy will be given to all after Mass, with a one-pound box of See’s candy given to the best boy and girl costumes. See you there!

Next Sunday, November 4th, at the 10 o’clock Mass, is our Annual Mass for the Dead. If you have lost a loved one during this past year, this is the Mass to attend.

All Souls envelopes will be in the pews this Sunday and next Sunday. Pleases fill them out and return them in the regular collection so that I can put your envelopes on our altar during the month of November, the Month of All Souls.

A lot of other stuff is going on in our Parish. Please check the tables and bulletin boards for information too numerous to mention in this letter.

HAPPY HALLOWEEN!

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE
En México y otros países latinoamericanos se están preparando para celebrar el Día de Todos los Santos (1o de noviembre) y el Día de los Fieles Difuntos (2 de noviembre). Estas dos fiestas cristianas fueron mezcladas con antiguos ritos y devociones mesoamericanas. Ellas enfatizan que la muerte es parte normal del ciclo de la vida y que los difuntos no se olvidan de sus seres queridos. Esta es la base de la devoción católica a los santos: Dios es Dios de los vivos y no de los muertos (Mateo 22:32); por eso los muertos siguen vivos en una nueva dimensión.
En estos días, las familias pasan tiempo en los cementerios, visitando las tumbas de sus parientes y amistades, lavando las lápidas, poniendo arreglos de zempasuchil y encendiendo veladoras. En casa, muchos latinos construyen y adornan altaritos dedicándolos a las almas de sus seres queridos que han muerto. En los altares se encuentran papel picado, fotos de los difuntos, artículos religiosos, comida, bebida, cigarritos y otras cosas que los ya muertos disfrutaban durante sus vidas. Para los niños muertos se añaden juguetitos que les gustaban en vida.

Trigésimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
28 de octubre de 2018
Estábamos alegres, pues ha hecho grandes cosas por su pueblo el Señor.
-- Salmo 126 (125):3
Queridos amigos,

¡Qué fin de semana tuvimos la semana pasada!

En primer lugar, gracias a los padres de la escuela por un gran Octoberfest. Difícil de creer, la sala se veía hermosa de una manera alemana. Tuvimos comida alemana (¡por supuesto!) Y una maravillosa subasta que espero recaudó mucho dinero para la escuela. Uno de los artículos de la subasta fue una cena para ocho en la Rectoría. Espero poder organizar esta cena. Mucha gente se vistió con sus trajes alemanes favoritos. Gracias, padres, por todo su arduo trabajo para hacer que esto suceda. Realmente amas a nuestra escuela y se nota.

Hablando de los padres de la escuela, la escuela ofrecerá un desayuno de panqueques hoy después de la Misa de las 10 en punto. El costo del desayuno, con todos los adornos, es de $5.00. ¡Qué buena oferta! Te veo en el pasillo.

Gracias, hermana Joy, por su presencia entre nosotros el fin de semana pasado. Gracias por su inspiradora charla. Espero que hayamos recaudado mucho para las Misiones. Permíteme decirte que fue un placer tenerte. Espero que nuestros caminos se crucen de nuevo!

Hoy es nuestra misa anual de Halloween para los niños en nuestra parroquia. Espero ver a todos nuestros niños con sus disfraces en la Misa de las 10 en punto. Se entregarán dulces a todos después de la Misa, con una caja de una libra de dulces de See para los mejores disfraces para niños y niñas. ¡Te veo allí!

El próximo domingo 4 de noviembre, en la misa de las 10 en punto, será nuestra misa anual por los muertos. Si ha perdido a un ser querido durante el año pasado, esta es la misa a la que debe asistir.

Todos los sobres de las Almas estarán en las bancas este domingo y el próximo domingo. Por favor, llénelas y devuélvalas en la colección regular para que pueda poner sus sobres en nuestro altar durante el mes de noviembre, el mes de todas las almas.

Muchas otras cosas están sucediendo en nuestra parroquia. Consulte las tablas y los tableros de anuncios para obtener información demasiado numerosa para mencionarla en esta carta.

¡FELIZ HALLOWEEN!

GO SOX

Padre Brian
