RECONCILED DIVERSITY

A few years ago, during Rome’s quiet summer, Pope Francis took a day off to visit privately with some old friends, whose identity took Catholic Italy by surprise: Evangelical Protestants. They welcomed Francis to their Pentecostal Church of Reconciliation, where Francis asked pardon for Catholic persecutions and celebrated the Holy Spirit’s “pentecostal work.” Unlike Satan, declared Francis, who creates division among God’s children, the Holy Spirit creates a diversity rich and beautiful. And unity; not uniformity, Francis specified, but unity in diversity. Francis named the Spirit’s gift “reconciled diversity.” Pentecost’s rich treasury of scriptural readings, for Saturday’s vigil and Sunday’s morning liturgy, traces the Holy Spirit’s work from creation’s beginning, through Jesus’ resurrection, into the church’s earliest days, now into our days. Kindled in our hearts, the Spirit’s gentle fire is ours to share generously, even with those most strikingly different from us. All hearts are Spirit-warmed by reconciled diversity.

THE FATIMA CONNECTION

Mary guides us to her Son by making connections between the past, and our present lives. This month we will be looking at the lives of Jacinta and Francisco, (the two youngest Saints in the history of the church), to make a connection between the requests of Mary at the Apparitions in Fatima then, and in our life's today.

Dear Friends,

Last Thursday marked the 75th Anniversary of D-Day, the invasion of allied troops in Normandy, France, during World War II. Some news commentators have said that this will be the last big anniversary for D-Day with Americans who fought in the battle who are still alive.

More than 5,000 ships, 50,000 vehicles and 11,000 planes were involved in the assault along a 50-mile stretch from Normandy coast. At the end of five days, nearly 10,000 allied soldiers were killed, wounded, missing or captured. Estimates of German casualties range between 4,000 and 9,000.

One of the last cities to be liberated was the town of Lisieux, home of St. Theresa. In 1980, St. John Paul II visited the small city which had been nearly destroyed during the war and blessed its basilica.

D-Day reminds me that freedom is not free. Our freedom is paid for in the blood, sweat and tears of others.

Today is Pentecost Sunday, and after Easter, the most important day in our Liturgical Year.

All of us have been baptized, and like the disciples on that first Pentecost, we have been immersed in the Spirit.

I have been called to carry out in my life the Lord’s work. It is a mission specific to me because since the beginning of time there has been no one exactly like me. And until the end of time there will be no one exactly like me.

Now I could say, “OK, I’ve been called by God to be a Christian … I’ve been baptized, I’m a member of the Church and I’ve got to be my best to be a faithful member of that Church. So I go to Mass each Sunday, I turn in my envelope, I observe Lent and don’t eat meat on the Fridays of Lent.”

But that is too generic!

It is sort of a “beige Christianity” – bland, flat, ordinary, uninteresting, standard, predictable stuff. That was not the color of the response of Teresa of Avila, Peter, Paul, Francis of Assisi, Mother Theresa and John Paul II. Their response, their discipleship, was in bright colors … very personal, striking.

I need to take my response to God’s call down to the next level, deep down inside of me where my truest self lives.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and enkindle within them the fire of your love. Send forth your spirit so that we can be recreated, so that we can renew the face of the earth.

HAPPY PENTECOST!
GO WARRIORS!

To the Parishioners and Parish Staff of Our Lady of Loreto, Novato:

I would like to take this opportunity to let you know that I am leaving this Parish Community to serve as Pastor of the Sacred Heart Parish in Olema, California.

As I thank God, I also thank each one of you, because I have enjoyed my tenure here, and I appreciate having had the opportunity to work with everyone in the Parish Community.

I remember at the beginning when some parishioners from the Hispanic community said, “Fr. Erick, We are so happy to have you here working with us”, and my answer was, “yes, it is so, but you cannot imagine that I am happier than you are” because I was just back from my one year of absence from the Church.

Therefore, Our Lady of Loreto will always represent for me, happiness and a new encounter with my pastoral work as Priest in the Church.

I would like to thank Fr. Brian and the Parish Staff for their support during my time as Parochial Vicar in this Parish.

Thanks again for everything. I wish you all the best.

God Bless.

Father Erick Arauz

A los feligreses y al personal parroquial de Nuestra Señora de Loreto, Novato:

Me gustaría aprovechar esta oportunidad para hacerles saber que me voy de esta comunidad parroquial para servir como Parroco de la Parroquia del Sagrado Corazón en Olema, California.

Le agradezco a Dios y a cada uno de ustedes, porque he disfrutado de mi permanencia aquí, y aprecio haber tenido la oportunidad de trabajar con todos en la comunidad parroquial.

Recuerdo, a mi llegada, que algunos feligreses de la comunidad hispana me dijeron: “P. Erick, estamos muy felices de tenerle aquí trabajando con nosotros ”, y mi respuesta fue:"si, es cierto, pero no se imaginan que yo estoy más feliz que Ustedes", porque acababa de regresar de un año de ausencia de la iglesia.

Por lo tanto, esta Parroquia de Nuestra Señora de Loreto siempre representará para mí, mucha felicidad y un nuevo encuentro con mi trabajo pastoral como Sacerdote en la Iglesia.

Me gustaría agradecer al Padre Brian y el personal de la parroquia por su apoyo durante mi tiempo como vicario parroquial en esta parroquia.

Gracias de nuevo por todo. Les deseo lo mejor. Dios los bendiga.

P. Erick Araúz
Queridos amigos,

El jueves pasado marcó el 75 aniversario del Día D, la invasión de las tropas aliadas en Normandía, Francia, durante la Segunda Guerra Mundial. Algunos comentaristas de noticias han dicho que este será el último gran aniversario del Día D con los estadounidenses que lucharon en la batalla y que aún están vivos.

Más de 5,000 barcos, 50,000 vehículos y 11,000 aviones participaron en el asalto a lo largo de un tramo de 50 millas de la costa de Normandía. Al final de los cinco días, cerca de 10,000 soldados aliados fueron asesinados, heridos, desaparecidos o capturados. Las estimaciones de bajas alemanas oscilan entre 4,000 y 9,000.

Una de las últimas ciudades en ser liberada fue la ciudad de Lisieux, hogar de Santa Teresa. En 1980, San Juan Pablo II visitó la pequeña ciudad que había sido casi destruida durante la guerra y bendijo su basílica.

El día D me recuerda que la libertad no es gratis. Nuestra libertad se paga con la sangre, el sudor y las lágrimas de los demás.

Hoy es el domingo de Pentecostés, y después de la Pascua, el día más importante de nuestro Año Litúrgico.

Todos nosotros hemos sido bautizados, y como los discípulos en ese primer Pentecostés, hemos estado inmersos en el Espíritu.

He sido llamado a realizar en mi vida la obra del Señor. Es una misión específica para mí porque desde el principio de los tiempos no ha habido nadie exactamente como yo. Y hasta el fin de los tiempos no habrá nadie exactamente como yo.

Ahora podría decir: "Bueno, Dios me ha llamado a ser cristiano ... me he bautizado, soy miembro de la Iglesia y debo ser lo mejor para ser un miembro fiel de eso". Iglesia. Así que voy a misa todos los domingos, entrego el sobre, observo la Cuaresma y no como carne los viernes de Cuaresma ".

¡Pero eso es demasiado genérico!

Es una especie de “cristianismo beige”: insípido, plano, ordinario, poco interesante, estándar, predecible. Ese no fue el color de la respuesta de Teresa de Ávila, Pedro, Pablo, Francisco de Asís, la Madre Teresa y Juan Pablo II. Su respuesta, su discipulado, fue en colores brillantes ... muy personal, sorprendente.

Necesito llevar mi respuesta a la llamada de Dios al siguiente nivel, muy dentro de mí, donde vive mi verdadero yo.

Ven, Espíritu Santo, llena los corazones de tus fieles y enciende dentro de ellos el fuego de tu amor. Envía tu espíritu para que podamos ser recreados, para que podamos renovar la faz de la tierra.

FELIZ PENTECOSTÉS!
¡VAYAN GUERREROS!

Padre Brian
